

Warriors trek to state; meet Mustangs Friday

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

Tomorrow's the day. Tomorrow at noon, Granite City South will put its season on the line as the Warriors battle Downers Grove South in the opening round of the Illinois High School Association state soccer tournament at West Campus Field (New Trier) in Northfield.

South enters the game with a 26-2 record. The Warriors are having the best season a Granite City high school team has ever had. If the Warriors defeat Downers Grove Friday, South will have won 27 games this year. That's the most wins ever of any Granite City high school soccer team.

The Warriors' momentous achievements this season will mean nothing going into the tournament. That will be behind them. They'll have to prove themselves all over again. Everything will be on the line. For South, it's do or die in the single-elimination quest for the coveted state title.

Entering the opening game, the Warriors have one advantage over Downers Grove. South's a veteran team of state soccer tournaments — this is the Warriors' eighth time in the post-season tournament. It's Downers Grove's (13-5-2) first. Although it's their first time, the Mustangs will be a worthy opponent. They enter the tournament on a winning streak that began the first week in October. They should be a formidable opponent, but then, no team which makes it to the "Elite Eight" should be taken lightly.

If Warriors are to bring home the championship, they'll have to win three games against teams that, like the Warriors, have proven to be the best in their sectionals. It won't be an easy task. (Scouting reports of those teams appears in today's sports section.)

The Warriors' chances to regain the state title they lost to Collinsville last year, however, appear to be very good. They have been rated first in both the writers' and coaches' polls of the Chicago Sting Newsletter for most of the season.

In addition, the Warriors are a state competition orientated team. Warrior Coach Gene Baker and his coaching staff have systematically arranged South's schedule of games to prepare for the Illinois soccer finale.

Baker's time and time again has referred to his kickers as "a tournament team." For Baker and his team, this weekend is the acid test. There are no tournaments in Illinois of more importance than the state tournament.

Those who have seen the Warriors play this season know they play better at times than at other times. It appears the Warriors play their best during tournaments, winning both the Glenbrook North Tournament in September and their own Tournament of Champions last month.

Perhaps the reason South plays as well during tournaments is the improved level of the opposition during tournament play, giving credence to the old adage you play only as well as your opposition. Baker concurred saying, "I think that's a fair assessment. There have been some games this year when we didn't play as well as we should."

The fact that South is going for its sixth state championship is no accident. Baker is a strategist.

Tuesday afternoon, Baker sat patiently waiting for his scouting report of Downers Grove.

After receiving the report, he walked over to the chalkboard in the team room and began working on a strategy to defend against Downers Grove.

Baker and his assistant coach, Mel Bunting, discussed the Mustangs' strikers and which Warriors would best defend against them.

"The team that wins (the state tournament) will have the best strategy, be the most organized and be the best prepared," Baker said.

After the strategy session, Baker assembled his Warrior team to defend against the "mock" Mustang squad.

South's success in the state tournaments has depended greatly on the amount of scouting the Warriors' have done of their opponents prior to their matchup.

Baker said the Warriors have historically had difficulty in the opening round of the tournament because they were unable to scout their opposing team. After that first round, Baker said, he or members of his coaching staff scout possible opponents at the tournament which aids with the second and third games.

"We do a great deal of role playing," Baker said. "Each player has a tactical duty on the field," although Baker added, "we play the team concept."

Part of the team concept includes depth and frequent substitution.

"We don't have a starting line up," Baker said. "We use who we think will best do the job under the circumstances."

Part of Baker's strategy for the Downers Grove game will involve Jim Gibson, Phil Popmarkoff, who suffered a groin pull in sectional play, is "training lightly" and will see limited action, Baker said.

The Warriors left Granite City South at 8 a.m. They'll stop at Illinois State University (Bloomington) for a brief practice before continuing their trip to Northfield.

Fans attending the tournament should find directions to Northfield supplied in today's sports section helpful. The Press-Record is sending two staffers to cover the tournament.

For those who cannot attend the tournament or for others who cannot make the first game but plan to attend the second game should South win, they may call the Press-Record office after 5 p.m. to get results of first round action. Persons may receive that information until 4:30 p.m. by calling 878-2000.

Should the Warriors win in the first round, they will play again Saturday at 9 a.m. They will play either Senn High School of the Chicago Public League or Malta High School in the semi-finals.

The championship game is scheduled for 7 p.m. Saturday.

Mortgage rates drop

by DONNA KIMBRO
of the Press-Record

The housing market locally may be realizing a boost in sales as a result of the downward trend in interest rates for FHA and VA loans, which have dropped to 12 1/2 percent, with a lesser percent when the seller assumes a point system.

A 30-year loan now may be obtained for 11 1/2 percent if the seller will absorb an approximate 6 points (depending on the economy) and a 15-year loan is possible for 10 percent, according to Edwin Reinagel, mortgage broker for Westamerica Mortgage Co., with home offices in Englewood, Colo.

These loans are available to any qualified buyer and are fixed rate and fixed term mortgages which are entirely assumable. Monies released, with a maximum rate of 12 1/2 percent, is available to any prospective buyer and not restricted to "first-time buyers." Homeowners who applied for and were granted mortgages around 17 1/2 percent last year may now refinance their loans to reduce the monthly payments by $100 to $150, Reinagel explained.

Interest Rates

This is a decrease from the October rate of 15.73 percent, the lowest level since May, 1981, according to a government release made public the first of November.

The Federal Home Loan Bank Board said the new average effective commitment rate on long-term fixed-rate mortgages fell 0.45 percentage points early in October from the 16.18 percent of September.

The prime lending rate offered by area savings and loan institutions and banks remains at 14 1/2 percent with a three-year balloon clause that will be renegotiated at that time and may increase the percentage rate and monthly payments of the homeowner.

"With this drop in interest rates, lending institutions can now offer the first time buyer, which normally is the younger generation, a chance to purchase a home at a cost they can live with," Reinagel added.

Accuse former resident in Mississippi jail fire

By NANCY WEIL
of the Press-Record

Robert E. Pates, 31, former Granite Cityan charged with 27 counts of capital murder after allegedly starting a fire in his jail cell Monday morning at the Harrison County Jail in Biloxi, Miss., had a long history of mental problems and an equally long arrest record here, according to Madison County officials. County Judge Daniel Guice ordered yesterday in a Biloxi court ordered that Pates be held without bond. Pates entered no plea, but will be able to do so later. A preliminary hearing is scheduled for Nov. 17.

While investigators were sorting through the damaged jail where 27 inmates died, Madison County residents who knew Pates here were recalling his long history of arrests and mental problems which have made him well known to various law enforcement agencies, including Collinsville, where

ROUND TABLE DISCUSSION. Granite City School District 9 administrators discuss a number of issues pertaining to the local schools with several concerned parents Tuesday morning at Parkview School. In conjunction with American Education Week, the coffee hours this week are hosted by the elementary school's PTA to allow face-to-face discussion of school district policies and problems in the system. From lower left, clockwise around the table, are: Donald Stucke, school board president; Board Member Thomas Mofsky; Superintendent of Schools B. J. Davis; Agnes Fryntzko, Parkview principal, and parents Becky Lewis; Mr. and Mrs. John (Gail) Klee and Rose Schwager (back to camera) holding her daughter, Sara. The last coffee hour will be in the school cafeteria on Friday morning at 9:30. All school district citizens are being invited. (Press-Record Photo by Patrick Foley)

Honor veterans today

The Veteran's Administration makes the following observations on this day, Veteran's Day.

Veterans Day 1982 marks the fifth anniversary of the return of the observance to Nov. 11 and the tradition of honoring the unknown soldier at Arlington on the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month.

From 1971 to 1975, Veterans Day was observed on the fourth Monday in October in compliance with a 1968 law that changed most national holidays to Mondays. Believing, however, that the Nov. 11 date held great significance for this country, Congress passed a law in 1975 which returned the holiday to Nov. 11. The law became effective in 1978, the 60th anniversary of the World War I armistice.

With the return of the observance to the armistice date of that "war to end

1850-1950 village history centers around Nameoki-Pontoon intersection

Homer Huber discussed Nameoki history at the November meeting of the Old Six Mile Historical Society last week. Fifty members and guests were present and President Don Gargie presided.

Mrs. Lorraine Blischoff, co-chairman of the antique show held at the St. Elizabeth Church cafeteria, reported that almost 800 persons attended and more than half were from outside the community.

Dealers came from as far away as Gettysburg, Tenn., Walnut, Ind., and several distant places in Illinois and Missouri. Not all bills and ticket money have been turned in, but it is believed the two-day show will have net proceeds of more than $2,000.

Mrs. Georgia Engelke, program chairman, announced that the Dec. 8 meeting will be held at the Madison Recreation Center and that Paul and Marguerite Connel will present the history of the Connel family through photo slides.

Mrs. Engelke introduced Huber, a local businessman and a former school board member of the Nameoki and Granite City schools. He is a member of the Tri-City Port board and has lived in the local area for over 60 years.

As a preface to his remarks, Huber said he and his wife were the 13th family to move into the Maryland Place area and that he would be speaking on the village of Nameoki, not the township. As he prepared for the speech, he found there is little written data on the village, but much on the township.

He thanked Ed Branding, Henry Willaredt, Helen Collins, Mrs. Engelke and the staff at the public library for their assistance in providing him with information.

The village of Nameoki was a hub of activity going back to 1850-60.

It was established about 1850 but the building of two railroads, the Indianapolis and St. Louis and the Chicago & Alton in 1858 started its initial "boom." The station was named by A. A. Talmadge, a conductor on the I & S, and there are two legends connected with it.

The one Huber prefers is that Nameoki was the daughter of an Indian chief and her name meant "Smoky."

This Indian maiden provided food and care to many of the early white settlers during a smallpox epidemic and also interceded between the Indians and whites. As an expression of their gratitude, the settlement was named for her. The second legend says that the word Nameoki means "fishing hole," which could also fit the area.

By 1860, Nameoki was a flourishing trading area. Agricultural products were brought in by horse and wagon; they were sold and then shipped out by rail.

The post office was established in 1876, and Dr. T. J. Irish was the first postmaster.

By 1882, Dr. Irish had built an elaborate home near the railroad station and owned 900 acres of land in the area. He also was a physician and owned a drugstore.

B. F. Squires had a hotel and Henry Pretzel a blacksmith shop. Between 1900 and 1915, Nameoki became the Midwest's potato center.

Buyers came from all parts of the country, and their purchases were shipped out by train.

Each fall, coal was brought in by rail and customers would haul it away by horse and wagon.

Nameoki businesses, in those early years, were laid out at the present intersection of Nameoki Road and Pontoon Road.

The present Mobil gasoline station was preceded by a two-story brick building containing the first post office, a tavern and a grocery store.

State program offers lower interest to small businesses

Governor James R. Thompson has unveiled a plan which provides financial opportunities for Illinois small businesses located in economically depressed communities.

"We have approached senior officials at both the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) and the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and both agencies are very enthusiastic about this idea," Thompson said.

The governor said the Designated Cities Plan combines financial resources from different areas to achieve combined, or blended, low-interest rates for loans to small businesses. The plan, he said, involves SBA's 7(a) guaranteed loan program in a modified form. The state will issue taxable bonds and the resulting revenue will be used to purchase the guaranteed portion of the SBA loans from private lending institutions.

Banks then may pass on a reduced interest rate to the small business. The result is that Illinois' small businesses will get longer-term, lower-interest loans than are now available with SBA 7(a) loans by themselves.

Thompson's plan also brings in HUD Urban Development Action Grants to finance part of the overall loan at a greatly reduced rate, a move that will mean even lower interest rates on the blended loan.

"We have met with some local officials to get their views on the new loan program and they have given us their full support. Both SBA and HUD officials have promised to continue working with our Department of Commerce and Community Affairs to work out the details of the program," Thompson added.

"Everyone involved in this program is well aware of the plight of the small businesses in today's economy and has shown a willingness to implement innovative programs like this one."

This creative use of SBA, HUD and state financial resources can lower interest rates for small businesses to below the prime interest rate, he said. Currently, small businesses often pay up to three points above the prime interest rate.

In addition, a program announced last month by the governor, which centers on a $424,000 grant from the U.S. Economic Development Administration, expects to fund its first project in mid-November. The Department of Commerce and Community Affairs (DCCA) has been working with the Decatur Chamber of Commerce on what will be the first application for these new funds. The project will be submitted to the Illinois Development Authority (IIDA) for funding consideration later this month.

The grant stipulates the funds are to be used to establish a Revolving Loan Fund for use by businesses in Peoria, Decatur, Rockford and Kankakee. The authority has agreed to administer the loan fund and to match the EDA funds with $141,000 in state funds. DCCA will serve as a liaison between IIDA and the cities.

Decatur is the first of the four eligible cities to submit a project for approval. The Ring Can Corporation is considering expanding its Decatur manufacturing facility at a cost of $800,000. The initial result will be 30 new jobs for the Decatur workforce with additional jobs being added as production grows, according to DCCA Director Peter B. Fox.

The financing will come from a combination of sources: the Decatur-Macon County Economic Development Foundation, the EDA Revolving Loan Fund, IIDA, a local financial institution and the company itself.

"We see this grant from the federal government as priming the pump of businesses in these areas of higher unemployment. Thanks to this infusion of EDA funds, Ring Can was able to find additional sources of financing and chose to expand its operations in Illinois. And that is one of the precise goals of our economic development strategy for the state," Thompson said.

The company, which manufactures containers, will expand at its present location to include the production of a new product. The $800,000 expenditure will cover equipment and line production machinery.

Committee 'hands out' money freed by homes referendum

By JIM SCHLUETER
Christmas came early for five Madison County departments last week, and the gift givers were the members of the county's finance committee — and county voters who approved referendums supporting the county's nursing and shelter care homes.

Because the referendums establishing special tax funds for the two homes were passed in the Nov. 2 election, the county is now able to spend an extra $197,294 that had been allocated to subsidize the two homes. The homes will not get that subsidy now.

The finance committee has been forced to slash the budgets of all county departments to avoid a $2 million general fund deficit in fiscal year 1983.

Following are the increases recommended by the finance committee:

—$50,000 to the sheriff's department, raising that budget to $2,143,543. The committee said the sheriff can use the money for either the sheriff's or the county jail budget (Sheriff Emil Toffan said the money will be used to reduce the number of deputies laid off from 17 to 15).

—$40,000 to the circuit court, which raises its budget to $494,403.

—$14,000 to the public defender, raising that budget figure to $136,737.

—$20,000 to the state's attorney, which increases that budget to $539,655; —$23,294 to data processing, which raises that budget to $393,655. Director of Administration Mary Kane said the amount was needed to prevent the laying off of two part-timers in that department.

$50,000 restored to the cash reserves of the general fund, raising those reserves to $1 million.

—$50,000 restored to the cash reserves of the general fund, raising those reserves to $1 million.

All of these changes must go as amendments to the proposed budget, and must be approved by the full board at its Nov. 17 meeting. The board will then approve the entire budget, which goes into effect Dec. 1.

The budgets of the nursing and shelter care homes also will have to be changed, according to County Auditor "Arthur" (Pat) Fields.

The nursing home will receive $1,088,340, from projected revenue generated by fees that would include a proposed $100-a-month increase in fees charged residents. It also will receive an additional $228,000 from the new special tax fund.

The shelter care home will receive a projected $389,639 of revenue from its proposed $100-a-month increase, and it will receive an additional $120,000 from its special tax fund.

According to Mrs. Kane, the rate hikes and the special taxes will keep the county homes operating without large cuts in services.

"Their budgets still involve some cutbacks," she said. "But now they will support themselves by fees and the special tax. There is no subsidy by the general fund."

The county will vote on the rate increases for the two homes at its November meeting.

The two homes combined will get an additional $348,000 from the two referendums, but only $197,294 is freed up for the county to spend elsewhere, because that is the amount the finance committee had planned to subsidize the two homes in fiscal year 1983, according to Fred Bathon of the auditor's office.

he allegedly damaged his padded jail cell.

Associate Judge Thomas Hildebrand went to Granite City High School with Pates, who graduated in 1969, and remembers him as being "just your basic jock. He played football and he wrestled." He was no big troublemaker.

Then it changed. Pates was primarily convicted of misdemeanors and went through the same cycle each time, Hildebrand said.

"He was well known for being arrested (in Madison County), especially in Edwardsville. He was always in trouble for minor things that usually stemmed from him not taking his mood stabilizers," Hildebrand said, adding that Pates would be arrested and sent to jail, only to be found unfit to stand trial. After being sent, or voluntarily entering, a mental health facility, Pates would be "straightened out" and able to comprehend what he had done.

After pleading guilty, Pates would be convicted of misdemeanor crimes with penalties of "no more than a year" in jail, Hildebrand said. "Then the whole cycle would start again."

Hildebrand said he was not surprised when he heard about the fire in Biloxi. "He was prone to do damage to the (county) jail here. I don't think he understood where he was or what he was doing."

Pates probably does not realize what he did at the jail in Mississippi, Hildebrand speculated.

The blaze that killed 27 and injured 61 others, including firefighters, inmates and support personnel, is believed to have started in Pates' isolation cell, where matches and belongings are not allowed. Pates claims he fell asleep smoking a cigarette given to him by two women inmates.

A state fire investigator reportedly found a cigarette near a mattress in Pates' cell Wednesday, but authorities in Biloxi would not speculate as to whether the cigarette caused the fire. Even though Biloxi officials seem certain the fire was started by Pates, Don Weber, Madison County state's attorney, said a conviction could be difficult. "How can you convict with no witnesses?" Weber asked, pointing out that persons in the immediate area were killed, except for Pates.

He also questioned the usual outcome of an insanity plea and said that Pates had been admitted to mental health facilities 25 times. In Madison County, Pates has been admitted 12 times, five voluntarily and seven involuntarily, Hildebrand added.

However, Weber said he knows of no answer to the problem of mental patients. "Just because somebody is a little weird, do you just lock him up forever?" he asked. The danger to society must be taken under consideration in determining whether a mental patient should be released, he feels. "Judges and juries should be suspicious about a mental diagnosis (on any defendant)...I am finding that a lot of psychologists and psychiatrists don't shoot straight with the public. It's a tough area," Weber added, noting that in his experience, mental health professionals find 95 percent of those they examine "fit and sane," only to have them arrested again a short time later.

Officials in Harrison County said they arrested Pates for his own protection and placed him in the padded cell Sunday night. He had been arrested Saturday and Sunday on charges of public drunkenness.

The fire started about 1:30 a.m. Monday, spread from the cell through the jail's ventilation system and smoke rapidly spread throughout the building. Toxic gas released from the polyurethane lining in the padded cell was responsible for most of the deaths, fire officials there believe.

Pates was one of the first inmates released from his cell when the fire started and was admitted to the psychiatric ward of Gulfport Memorial Hospital. He was treated there for minor burns, authorities said.

Tom Miller, an employee of the jail, attempted to release other inmates, but passed out from smoke inhalation after opening cells in the north block, where the fire broke out, and could not get to the south cell block.

Battery alleged in Madison case

Keith King, 23, of 704 Webster St., Madison, was charged in a battery complaint signed Monday by Skylar Haynes.

Both Madison and Venice police were called separately to an apartment in the 600 block of Bienville Street when Miss Haynes tried to remove clothing and other items from the home. She told Madison officers she had attempted to remove her possessions from the home without success. Shortly after, at 7:20 p.m., Venice police were called to the scene with reference to a subject tampering with a vehicle. King was seen walking away from a parked automobile with an auto jack in his hand, witnesses reported.

Police then informed King that Miss Haynes was entitled to remove her clothing from the premises, but that she would have to wait until after court appearance to remove furniture from the Webster Street residence.

King agreed and went with police and Miss Haynes to Webster Street. Upon arriving, King told police he did not have a key to enter the home. Noticing an open window, Miss Haynes attempted to climb inside the house, but King allegedly stopped her. Officers then informed him that someone had to enter the house through the window, a King climbed in, but refused to open the door, police reported.

An officer then climbed in and King opened the door and left, going across the street to a relative's house, according to official reports. Miss Haynes had removed several bags of clothing from the home when King returned. He allegedly shut the door twice while she was still inside and threatened her, according to report.

Police noted that they had to tell King several times to leave the door open. He allegedly said the door a third time as Miss Haynes was attempting to leave and officers reported seeing him grab her by the neck. Miss Haynes started to scream for help and King's relatives came across the street to find out what was happening. As police talked to the relatives, King allegedly was seen hitting Miss Haynes in the head with his fist.

MD's to debate legislation and seatbelt issue

The Illinois State Medical Society (ISMS) House of Delegates will hold its interim session Saturday and Sunday at the Sheraton St. Louis Hotel.

The House is the policy-making body of ISMS, which is comprised of more than 15,000 of the state's physicians.

Among the items for consideration by the House are:

1. Development of legislation to provide for an incompetent patient's spouse or other immediate family member to grant consent for medical procedures in non-emergency situations, a spokesman said.

2. Opposition to the proposed merger of the Chicago Suburban Cook-DuPage and Kane-Lake-McHenry health systems agencies.

3. Urging all Illinois-based airlines to carry a minimal medical emergency kit on each flight, with flight crews instructed in cardiopulmonary resuscitation and other life-saving procedures.

4. Support of seatbelt and other passenger restraint use as an effective method of reducing injuries and deaths in auto accidents.

The group also will consider a resolution which expresses as philosophy that all medical education should be comparable. The resolution coincides with a debate over granting of medical licenses to graduates of certain foreign medical schools.

Several informational programs also will be presented during Saturday's portion of the meeting. One such session will provide an overview of the new legislation requiring hospitals, medical societies, malpractice insurance carriers and courts to report to the state's Medical Disciplinary Board physicians who have disciplinary action taken against them or who lose or settle malpractice cases or commit felonies.

Other seminars will examine the effects of recent state legislative elections and the current medical malpractice situation.

Debate on all proposed resolutions will take place Saturday afternoon, with final action slated for Sunday morning.

Car hits train on Edwardsville

Danny F. Compton, 31, 2633 Lincoln Ave., was admitted to St. Elizabeth Medical Center, after his car hit a train tank car about 1:15 a.m. Tuesday.

Two Terminal Railroad Association (TRRA) engines were backing two tank cars across Edwardsville Road when, witnesses reported, Compton's car, traveling south, ran into the train.

Witnesses reported warning lights were flashing and a lantern was waved at the car prior to the accident. Admitted for a broken jaw, Compton was reported in good condition at the medical center Wednesday.

Q. You've advised shopping for any kind of services from medical to financial. What should I look in shopping for a loan, whether personal, auto, mortgage or whatever?

A. A good question, and one for which the federal agency that insures bank depositors has the answer. When talking to lenders, there are seven factors you'll want to know: First, what is the annual interest rate on the loan you are considering. Second, what will be the total cost of the loan in dollars. Next, you'll want to know the length of time in which you can pay off your loan, then the cost of deferring, or extending the time period of the loan. Fifth, you'll want to be able to compare the cost of late charges for overdue payments, as well as the cost of credit life insurance, and any other credit insurance coverage you are considering as a part of the contract. Finally, you'll want to compare the total amount of monthly payments. Armed with this information, you should be able to make a wise decision concerning an important financial agreement.

GRANITE CITY TRUST

Incidents included activity outdoors

The Granite City Game Room this week disagreed with parts of an article that appeared on Page 31 Nov. 4, "Disturbances at Game Room," objecting particularly to a phrase, "in the business place."

Records indicate that at 10:20 p.m. Oct. 30 a Game Room security guard barred a Kirkpatrick Homes man, James Hidy, 22, who was seeking to enter the establishment. Hidy was arrested for disorderly conduct.

Attracted by an individual who then stood on the sidewalk outside and yelled, some Game Room patrons left the building and watched from the parking lot.

In an unrelated occurrence at 11:45 p.m. Oct. 30, six or seven persons began shouting at and cursing a Game Room employee and Game Room security guards. As they left, the vicinity and crossed Nameoki Road to the 1400 block of Kirkpatrick Homes.

The profanity continued and some of them began throwing soda bottles and beer bottles toward the Game Room parking lot area, narrowly missing patrons and guards.

When one of the bottles struck a patron on the leg or foot, the slightly injured man advanced toward the original group at Kirkpatrick Homes. Others followed.

Records show Thomas Beck of Kirkpatrick said he was in the initial group and that, after the bottles were thrown, two persons walked across the street to a point near him; one of them was holding a knife.

Beck told the man to put the knife down and the man refused; Beck reached out and "smacked" the knife-wielder with his hand, he said. They began to fight, and Beck was hit by the knife on the back of the right leg. He was taken by ambulance for hospital treatment of the wound.

There has been a tentative first name and last name identification of the assailant, described as 24 to 26 years old, 6-1 in height, 180 pounds, with light brown or dark blond wavy, shoulder-length hair. He had a new beard and was wearing gold wire-rim eyeglasses, blue jeans and a blue jean jacket that displayed many karate patches.

Beck does not wish to prosecute the man and the potential aggravated battery case has been marked by authorities as "cleared, due to unusual circumstances."

An individual not involved in the knifing case, Russell Pierson, 18, of Kirkpatrick was arrested outdoors for disorderly conduct and obstructing police near the area of the disturbance.

CURFEW CHARGE
John R. Jones, 17, of 2320 Hodges Ave., was charged with curfew violation and having no valid driver's license. Police officers arrested Jones at 4 a.m. Tuesday at Washington and Hodges avenues.

Presbyterian Church announces programs

Several events of interest to the congregation of Nameoki United Presbyterian Church, 1700 Pontoon Road, are announced by the pastor, the Rev. Don Pierson.

The initial affair will be an all church square dance on Friday from 7 to 10 p.m. at the Community Center, Faith and Buxton avenues, sponsored by the Spirit Sails Mariners. A second social will be on Saturday with a white elephant auction planned by the Windmaster Mariners, hosted by Francis and Edna Cesse.

A Thanksgiving dinner will take place at the church on Sunday, Nov. 21, as an all church event to follow the morning worship service. Arrangements for the potluck dinner are being completed by the Board of Deacons.

In conjunction with the plans, Rev. Pierson has selected "The Thin Thread of Thanksgiving" as his topic for the 10:45 a.m. service. A series of family events for Advent season will follow the theme of "The Wonder of Christmas" at each Sunday morning worship hour. Rev. Pierson explained. Gifts of canned food will be brought to each Sunday service, and

BRIDICK EXTENDS HOLIDAY THANKS
There were no police reports Halloween night between 6 and 9, the time that children were trick or treating, in Madison, which makes Police Chief Donald Bridick very happy. Madison police headquarters did not receive a report of any disturbance or vandalism, he said.

Bridick said he commends the action of the youngsters and their parents for making Halloween a safe night. The police department, fire department and Explorer Post 104 also were commended by Bridick for their assistance Halloween night.

"I feel that when everyone works together, the job becomes easier for all involved and also makes the city a place to be proud of," Bridick said.

WARRANT FOR THEFT
David P. Louins, 17, of 1740 Chestnut St., was arrested at his home on a theft warrant Monday. He later was released on his own recognizance, pending a court hearing.

Thompson up by 5,561; foe seeks recount

With completion of a canvass of Chicago precincts Wednesday, leaving Governor James R. Thompson (R) 5,561 votes ahead, Adlai Stevenson (D) announced he will seek an official recount.

The challenger urged the governor to cooperate and said a recount possibly could be finished by the Jan. 10 inauguration.

Saying it appears Thompson will be certified as winning by less than a sixth of one percent of the vote, only about a half-vote per precinct, Stevenson said.

"The public interest requires confirmation of the winners. The only way to deal with inevitable error in the vote counting process is to recount."

Gov. Thompson, ahead 1,815,428 to 1,809,867, claimed victory on Friday, three days after the election. Stevenson said yesterday the claim is "just plain premature" and asserted.

"Grace Mary Stern and I cannot concede" to Thompson and George Ryan, the apparent lieutenant governor victor.

Meanwhile, it appears Democrats are one seat short of a three-fifths Illinois House margin. With one challenge still likely, Republicans trail 70-48 in the new 118-member chamber.

Illinois Senate Democrats have a 33-26 majority.

On both sides of the General Assembly, most lawmakers taking the oath of office in January will reside in districts entirely or partly in the City of Chicago or will have interests closely linked with the city.

At present, the GOP has a 9-6 edge in the House, where Ryan is the speaker, and Democrats control the Senate 30-29.

Mrs. Helen (Vasileff) Georgeff, 92, of Granite City, died at 9:25 p.m. Monday, Nov. 8, 1982, at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, where she had been hospitalized for five days.

Born in Strebrano, Macedonia, she resided in the Quad-City area for 68 years. Mrs. Georgeff was a member of the Eastern Orthodox faith.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Marko Georgeff, June 6, 1969, and by a son, Nicholas Georgeff.

Survivors include two other sons, Ted and Vassil Georgeff, both of Granite City; two daughters, Miss Lucille Georgeff of Granite City, and Mrs. Jo Husley of Madison; four grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. today at Mercer Mortuary, 1416 Niedringhaus Ave., where Parastasis services will begin at 7 p.m. today. The Rev. Peter Stamboldjev will conduct funeral services at 10 a.m. Friday, Nov. 12, at the funeral home with burial in Sunset Hill Cemetery, Edwardsville Township.

Leslie Lancaster

Funeral services were conducted for Leslie Lancaster, 77, a former resident of 30 years, Nov. 2, 1982 in Helena, Ark. Mr. Lancaster died Oct. 29, 1982 at 2 p.m. at the Crest Park Nursing Home in Helena where he was a resident for three months.

Mr. Lancaster was born in Tennessee and worked as a riverboat pilot on the Mississippi River for many years. He was of the Protestant faith. He lived in Arkansas for 15 years after moving from here.

His wife, Jessie, preceded him in death in 1981. Survivors include one son, Paul, of Granite City; three daughters, Mrs. Robert (Ann) Astorian and Mrs. Harvey (Bertha) Boone, both of Granite City and Miss Edith Lancaster of Nampa, Idaho.

Judy Donaldson is acting comptroller for Madison

by DONNA KIMBRO of the Press-Record

The Madison City Council gave approval Tuesday night for Judy Donaldson, secretary in the office of comptroller for the City of Madison, to serve as interim comptroller until a replacement for the position can be found for Albert Hudzik. The appointment was made on the recommendation of Hudzik, who resigned the post on Oct. 12.

Approval also was granted to increase her salary from $200 to $300 a week while she is assuming the added responsibility. She started working as a secretary on a part-time basis in October, 1977, and in October, 1979, was hired as a full-time employee.

The council now will hire an interim secretary to assist with the duties of the office, since Hudzik is to begin working at his new post with First Granite City National Bank on Dec. 6.

A request from three residents for permission to have a Flash Cube building erected on the vacant corner of Fourth Street and Madison Avenue (southwest corner) was referred to the city attorney, Casper Nighoshian. He was instructed to draw up a lease with pertinent terms to be submitted to the council at a later meeting.

It was pointed out that the corner property was donated to the city by the Schermer family and the city had intended to blacktop the area for use as a parking lot. There would be enough room for the Flash Cube building in the lot, it was indicated.

The annual audit was presented to the council, which referred it to Hudzik to place the audit on public display in the office of the comptroller for any interested Madison resident to view.

The council voted to accept a contract with Illinois Power Co. to use utility poles to string cable for the burglar alarm system. The contract stipulated that Illinois Power is relieved of any responsibility for property damage in conjunction with use of the poles.

The power company will be liable for its workers, as long as the city is not negligent in its installation of additional cable for the alarm system, Hudzik explained. He said extended insurance coverage will be purchased to protect the city of Madison.

In other business, council approval was given to pay bills totaling $42,435.

Resolutions also were passed to update ordinances in conjunction with the resurfacing of Madison Avenue to conform with the requirements of the Illinois Department of Transportation.

Total cost of the project, which will begin at 20th Street in Granite City and extend to the south city limits of Madison, is set at $434,000 with the city of Madison paying $14,300 of the overall cost.

Police Chief Don Bridick addressed the council in relation to the Halloween weekend. He said there was no vandalism or problems connected with the annual autumn observance and he commended the fire and police departments and Explorer Post 164 for their assistance in patrolling the area, designed primarily for the safety of the children.

A representative of Amvets Post 204 spoke during the council session, announcing the post's annual Veterans Day service at 11 a.m. today at the flag pole at Third Street and Madison Avenue.

The council was notified that an appeal by former police lieutenant Richard Krieshok for his pension was dismissed by the circuit court Nov. 4 in East Alton.

Krieshok appealed the Alton Police Pension Board's decision denying him his pension on the basis that acts leading to his federal felony conviction were job related.

On the recommendation of the Madison Zoning Board, the council gave permission to Norman Stawar to build a family room and garage on his property at 1305 Iowa St., Madison, with the stipulation that the new addition be 24 inches from the property line. Also, a special use permit was granted to Merl Ray Huehly, 2035 Sixth St., to open a retail liquor store at 1112 State St.

SHOW STUDIES RADIOACTIVE WASTE

The dangers of radioactive waste will be explored in a video show at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, Nov. 15 through 19.

The free shows are scheduled in the Video Lounge, on the second floor of the University Center. Showtimes are Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 12:30 and 1:30 p.m.; Tuesday and Thursday at 10:30 and 11:30 a.m., and Monday and Tuesday at 6:30 p.m.

"Danger: Radioactive Waste" makes the charge that scientists, governmental agencies and industrialists are squabbling over minor points of how to dispose wastes while radioactive materials continue to accumulate and endanger the people and the environment.

The video series is sponsored by the Student Program Board. For more information, interested persons may contact the SPB at 1-692-8617.

First Bank group may acquire Colonial Bank

An agreement through which Colonial Bank of Granite City may be purchased by First Granite City National Bank's holding company was announced jointly yesterday by the boards of directors of Colonial and First Granite Bancorporation, Inc.

Under the agreement, First Granite Bancorporation, which owns First Granite City National Bank, will offer to purchase all of the outstanding shares of Colonial Bank at $53 per share.

At least 60 percent of the shares must be tendered by their owners for the change of ownership to occur. Consummation of the purchase is subject to regulatory approval and the usual purchase conditions. Melvin C. Wilmsmeyer, president of First Granite Bancorporation and of the First Bank, explained.

He stressed that there will be no changes in the board of directors, management and employees at either location.

Donald Van Horn, president of Colonial Bank, which is at Maryville and Pontoon roads, said the purchase would allow Colonial to work more closely with First Granite City National Bank.

"Certain efficiencies in new products and data processing are among the many cost-saving features of the anticipated arrangement. We look forward to the early completion of the transaction," Van Horn said.

"The transaction is expected to enable both organizations to more effectively serve the public in Granite City and surrounding areas," Van Horn and Wilmsmeyer said in yesterday's joint statement.

Wilmsmeyer added, "We are pleased in reaching an agreement with the board of Colonial Bank. The Colonial is a very profitable, well-managed bank, having assets in excess of $15 million, with good future growth potential."

The projected completion date for the purchase is in the spring of 1983.

First Granite Bancorporation, Inc., was created a short time after Illinois law was changed Jan. 1, allowing bank holding companies in the state. The enabling legislation was enacted in 1981.

The holding company is a private corporation owned by individual stockholders, Wilmsmeyer said. It was formed by a vote of the First Granite City National Bank stockholders.

First Granite City National and Colonial Bank of Granite City have always had a good relationship. Among those active in forming the Colonial Bank was Paul H. Lichtenberger, who, at that time, was chairman of First Granite City National Bank.

Shareholders of the First Bank were given an opportunity to buy stock when Colonial was being organized.

Several persons currently are members simultaneously of both banks' boards.

(An article published on Page 11 Monday dealt with National Steel Corp. The article attempted to describe National Steel as owner of Granite City Steel but inadvertently said National Steel owned "First National.")

(First Granite City National Bank is owned by a large number of Granite Cityans and other individuals. It rents space for its main banking location in the Granite City Steel building.)

(Traditionally, the First Granite City National Bank board has included an officer of National Steel and an executive of Granite City Steel.)

Chromalloy reports loss

Chromalloy American Corp., owner of the Precast Metals plant in Granite City, reported Wednesday that a $27.5 million after-tax charge against third-quarter earnings — to provide for additional losses anticipated as the company carries out divestiture of certain businesses — was the principal factor in a net loss of $34.1 million.

There was a primary loss per share of $2.31 for the three months ended Sept. 30. Chromalloy had net earnings of $14.2 million or primary earnings per share of 88-cents in the third quarter last year.

The $27.5 million write-off against third-quarter earnings reflected the negative impact of the continuing recession on Chromalloy's plans for expeditious disposal of 25 businesses marked for sale late in 1981 and classified at the time, for financial reporting purposes, as discontinued operations.

While seven of those businesses have already been sold, bringing Chromalloy about $24 million in total proceeds, the effect of the continued decline in the economy on the remaining businesses has reduced the proceeds expected from their sale or liquidation, extended the time required to dispose and increased their anticipated operating losses during the phase-out period.

The third-quarter charge against earnings provides for increases in anticipated net losses resulting from disposal of the remaining discontinued businesses, including net losses expected to be incurred in the extended phase-out period. The company estimates the net losses from discontinued businesses should be substantially completed in 1983.

With their major markets in industries heavily affected by recession, Chromalloy's continuing businesses incurred a loss of $6.7 million for the past three months, a primary loss per share of 51-cents, compared with earnings of $14.9 million or 95-cents primary earnings per share in the third quarter last year.

Net sales and operating revenues of the continuing businesses were $235.3 million in the third quarter this year, a decline of 16.6 percent from $282 million dollars in the year-ago third quarter.

The third quarter was a particularly difficult one for Chromalloy's extensive barge line operations and petroleum services companies. The barge industry is suffering from substantial over-capacity of dry cargo barges, severely depressing grain hauling rates.

Profit margins in the oil field equipment and supplies industry have been eroded by the continuing decline in oil and gas drilling.

Activity in other Chromalloy markets has declined further and the company carried a heavier interest burden than in the year-ago period.

The financial services group incurred a third-quarter net loss of $4 million, largely because of unfavorable underwriting results of the property-casualty insurance subsidiaries.

William E. Stevens, president and chief operating officer, of Chromalloy, said the company has put in place programs to improve cash flow by bringing costs, working capital and capital expenditures in line with prevailing levels of business.

Other steps including temporary plant shutdowns and shortened work weeks are being taken to cushion the cost impact of weak markets, Stevens said.

In addition, a combination of layoffs, job terminations and early retirements reduced Chromalloy's domestic employment to 14,630 at the end of the third quarter, about 4,100 fewer than a year ago.

Stevens said the continuing businesses in Chromalloy's metal fabrication and apparel segments operated profitably in the third quarter, although earnings, below those of the third quarter last year.

No significant upturn in results from continuing operations is expected until the economy improves for temporary plant shutdowns and shortened work weeks are being taken to cushion the cost impact of weak markets, Stevens said.

Results brought net sales and operating revenues from continuing operations to $726.2 million for the first nine months of 1982 compared with $774.5 million in the same period of 1981.

The net loss for the first nine months is $38.8 million, or $2.75 loss per share, compared with net earnings of $35.5 million or $2.21 per share in the first nine months last year.

Recount sought; Marshall teacher harassed

With Democrats snaring three of the 29 Madison County Board positions by unusually narrow margins, their party not only will continue to dominate the board but will have a 26-3 edge effective Dec. 1.

The makeup of the board will differ from the December 1980-82 period, during which it has consisted of 23 Democrats and six Republicans.

The official canvass completed during the weekend shows that votes were cast by 66,640 of Madison County's 127,415 registered voters, a turnout of 52.3 percent.

At least one of the Republicans losing out in last week's County Board balloting will seek a recount.

Mrs. Dottie Cummings, lower by seven votes to Democrat Rick Hamilton in District 26, filed Tuesday for a discovery recount at two precincts, which have not yet been specified. The official tally in the Glen Carbon-Edwardsville area district was 1,096 to 1,029.

With Democrat Charles R. Burns defeating Republican John Mull of rural Edwardsville by four votes, 1,029 to 1,021, in the county's 11th district, Mull has not yet decided whether to seek a recount.

Although Republican Herschel F. Beane of Godfrey on election night was believed to have won another District 5 term by 59 votes, 1,151 to 1,092, the canvass showed Democrat Robert L. Copley winning by 34 votes, 1,188 to 1,154.

A Granite City police officer was sent to Marshall School, 2100 Marshall Ave., about 6:30 p.m. Monday, after youths outside the school yelled at a teacher in the building and a classroom window was broken.

The teacher told police she heard several youths outside the building yelling for her to come out. She reported she ignored the youths for several minutes, until she heard a crash and a window was broken.

She then called police and notified the school custodian, who observed three youths tampering with the teacher's car parked in the rear of the school. The custodian chased the youths down the alley between Marshall and Warren avenues, but lost sight of them.

It was discovered that air had been left in one of the tires and the teacher's automobile.

LICENSE - QUESTIONED
Claude W. Garrett, 28, of 808 Madison St., West Madison, was arrested last weekend for allegedly driving while his license was suspended. Bail was set at $250.

LYNCH BURGLARY
Gold clubs and numerous tools were taken from the garage of Charles Morris, 2544 Lynch Ave., sometime between July and November. The items were discovered missing Monday.

VETERAN'S DAY NOVEMBER 11

FOR REMEMBRANCE

What is it, O dear Country of our pride,
We pledge anew that we will not forget?
To keep on Freedom's altar burning yet
The fires for which a myriad heroes died
Known and unknown, beyond the far sea's tide
That their great gift be no futility.

Faith with the Dead kept through our living faith;
In this alone the true remembrance lies,
The unfading garland for the sacrifice,
To prove their dream of Brotherhood no wraith,
No moment's hope — its birth-pang one with death —
But the fixed goal of our humanity.

Honors today

all wars," this year's observance is an occasion to pay tribute to the 1,681,000 Americans who have died in the defense of their country in all American wars since 1776 and to more than 30 million former servicemen who served during both war and peace.

More than half of the men and women who have worn their country's uniform in wartime are still alive. Of a total of 38,924,000 war participants—going back to the earliest days of the nation—25,625,000 war veterans are still living. Another 4.4 million living veterans saw only peacetime service.

By far the most costly of America's was its Civil War in which 5,200,000 persons participated. That conflict saw 364,000 Union deaths and 133,821 Confederate deaths. (Authoritative statistics are not available for the Southern casualties.)

In contrast, 290,000 Americans fought in the Revolution, and 4,000 died in service. Out of 287,000 Americans participants in the War of 1812, 2,000 lost their lives in service.

During the Mexican War, only 79,000 Americans were in uniform, yet 13,000 died in service.

In the Spanish-American War, 11,000 of the 392,000 U.S. participants died in service.

A total of 4,744,000 answered the country's call to arms in World War I, and 116,000 died.

World War II saw the greatest number of Americans ever in uniform—16,335,000 men and women. There were 406,000 deaths in service during that conflict.

During the Korean fighting, 6,807,000 saw service, and when it was over in 1955, 55,000 had died.

A total of 9,834,000 Americans were in service during Vietnam Era fighting. Of that number 47,000 deaths were due to action of hostile forces.

News notes

Motorcycle, car in accident

Kenneth L. Kissel, 31, 1929A Grand Ave., was thrown 42 feet across the pavement on Nameoki Road after the Yamaha motorcycle he was driving collided with an automobile at 12:45 p.m. Monday.

According to police reports, Kissel was stopped behind northbound traffic in the inside lane of Nameoki Road before switching lanes and colliding with the southbound automobile of Charles I. Wetzman, Edwardsville, which was attempting to turn onto Clark Avenue.

Kissel came down on the hood of the automobile and then skid across the pavement. He was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center where he was treated and released.

National Steel and representatives of its 10,000 Weirton, W. Va., workers began talks Monday in New York City on selling the Weirton plant to the employees. The corporation, owner of Granite City Steel, said in March it could no longer afford to invest in equipment at Weirton and wanted it to be owned and operated by the staff.

Undermined are the price and the terms under which it would be paid.

The state's colleges and universities want to spend 17.5 percent more next year, emphasizing faculty pay and pensions.

October traffic deaths in Illinois totaled 137, compared to 133 in October 1981. The 1982 total is 1,389, about 10 percent under the 1,540 fatalities in the first ten months last year.

In new letters to legislators, Gov. James R. Thompson is pushing for abolishing state property multipliers and altering the taxation of corporations.

The Internal Revenue Service will allow taxpayers to earn $150 in interest a year in each of any number of bank accounts without any of the earnings being subject to tax withholding. Also effective next July will be exemptions for elderly and low-income persons from the scheduled withholding of 10 percent of interest and dividends.

With a four-man crew, the Columbia space vehicle was launched on schedule today in Florida. Its five-day fifth mission includes placing satellites into orbit. The astronauts hope to circle the earth 81 times.

Democrats yesterday proposed a $5 billion plan to create 600,000 jobs. Some Republican officials favor a higher gasoline tax to provide such funds. Both parties are urging work on aging roads, bridges, transit systems and public buildings, but Democrats oppose a fuel tax rise; instead, they prefer defense budget cuts and elimination of the 10 percent income tax slash slated for July 1983.

Richard Trumka, who was born in Mount Olive, was elected Tuesday to head the United Mine Workers union, leading Sam Church 75,000 to 36,000. The five-year presidency begins Dec. 22. The 1930s-'40s era president, John L. Lewis, also was an Illinoisan.

Free cheese Friday

Free five-pound blocks of American cheese will be distributed in Granite City, Chouteau and Nameoki townships tomorrow morning, the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission.

The cheese, donated by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, will be distributed beginning at 9 a.m. Friday in the Kirkpatrick Homes Recreation Center, 1890 Kirkpatrick Homes. Nameoki Township plans to begin distribution sometime between 8 and 8:30 a.m. tomorrow at the town hall, 450 Highway 162, and Chouteau Township will give away the cheese beginning at 9 a.m. Friday at the township office, 675 N. Thorngate Drive, Mitchell (behind the Midwest Motel).

Nameoki Township also will give cheese away from the State Park Community Building, 1310 Harvard, State Park Place.

Persons wishing to obtain cheese must bring proof that they reside within the township issuing the cheese. No proof of income is necessary, but officials ask that only low-income and needy families apply. Only one five-pound block of cheese will be issued per household.

Census survey to study vote patterns

Did you vote on November 2? Were you registered but did not vote?

The Bureau of the Census will ask these and other questions about voting in the 1982 elections in a sample of households in this area during the week of Nov. 15 to 20.

Marvin L. Postma, director of the bureau's regional office in Kansas City, stressed that no questions will be asked about party affiliation or for whom a person voted. The survey will provide a profile of American voters and non-voters by characteristics such as age, sex, residence, education and labor force status.

These voting questions are in addition to the usual ones asked in the monthly survey on employment and unemployment conducted nationwide by the bureau for the U.S. Department of Labor.

Results of the monthly employment survey provide data on conditions in the labor force, prime indicators of the economic health of the country. For example, in September, the survey indicated that of the 111.9 million men and women in the civilian labor force, 99.7 million were employed. The nation's unemployment rate was 10.1 percent, compared with 9.8 percent in August and July.

Information supplied by individuals participating in the survey is kept confidential by law and the results are used only to compile statistical totals.

NEW LIFE ASSEMBLY ART EXHIBIT SET

Five people have completed an eight week art class sponsored by New Life Assembly, 1909 State St.

Ruby Cook, Carol Dutton, Vanessa Vargo, Margaret Smelser, and Karen Tucker (instructor) created a variety of paintings in oils.

The paintings will be exhibited on Sunday, Nov. 14, immediately following the 10:30 a.m. service. A reception for the artists will include coffee, punch, and cake.

Pastor Ed Dutton invites the public to attend both the service and the reception.

KITCHEN RANSACKED

The kitchen, storage room and bedrooms of the Williams residence, 2409 Hodges Ave., were ransacked sometime between 6 and 10 p.m. Monday. A shotgun, jewelry and blank checks, among other items, were reported missing.

Armed robbery charges filed

Two men were charged Tuesday with the armed robbery of Lee's Short Shop, 4021 Pontoon Road, Monday night.

Roy Lee Cutright, 20, of the 2100 block of Grand Avenue, and Mark Ramsey, 19, of Macon, Mo., were being held in lieu of $50,000 bond each.

Cutright allegedly used a soft drink bottle to strike storeowner Chen S. DuPont on the back of the head as she was cleaning up sugar spilled from a bag allegedly broken by Ramsey. After Cutright hit the owner, Ramsey went to the front of the store and removed $375 from the open cash register, police were told.

Miss DuPont was treated at St. Elizabeth Medical Center and released.

Pontoon Lions form welcome group for new businesses

New businesses in the Pontoon Beach area will be given a special treat when they first open their doors to the public, thanks to the Lions Club of Pontoon Beach. The club is sending a special committee of greeters out to the new establishments for the purpose of welcoming the new merchants to the area.

In a brief ceremony, the new owners will be greeted by the president and other dignitaries of the Lions Club.

During the ceremony, pictures will be taken to help publicize the new establishments. Each new owner will be presented a special planter, which is being designed by Betty and Bob's Floral Shop.

The idea of the greeters committee was developed by the current president, Frank Cramer. Cramer strongly believes this is a worthy service which is long overdue for the Pontoon area.

Mike Starko presently is the chairman of the greeters committee. Helping him are Jerry Henderson, Nelson King, Bob Lipscomb, Alex Malynski and Walt Morgan.

Starko has reported that to initiate the committee, the Lions Club is going back to make contact with all of the merchants who have begun businesses in the past year. Thus far, the greeters committee has officially welcomed seven new establishments.

Fulbright lecturing and research awards offered

Applications are being accepted for senior scholar Fulbright Awards abroad during the 1983-84 academic year.

Floyd Coleman, associate dean of Graduate Studies and Research at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, announced today.

More than 200 lecturing and research awards are available from the Council for International Exchange of Scholars in Washington, D.C.

According to Coleman, there is no specific deadline for the receipt of applications. "As the Council receives and reviews applications, awards may no longer be available," he said. "Individuals should therefore act promptly if they wish to be considered for an award."

Applicants must be U.S. citizens, hold a doctorate or other higher degree, have significant professional or teaching experience, and, in some cases, be fluent in a foreign language.

Applications and additional information are available from the SIUE Office of Graduate Studies and Research, or from the Council for International Exchange of Scholars, Eleven Dupont Circle, Washington, D.C. 20036.

IEA says many pro-education candidates were elected in state

The Illinois Education Association and Illinois Political Action Committee for Education this week claimed victory in the numbers of pro-education, pro-teachers that their members helped elect to the general Assembly and to other offices.

IEA-IPACE was involved in more than 300 races throughout the state. Endorsing both Democrats and Republicans, the IEA said its support for candidates was based solely on the candidates, records on public education.

In the Illinois Senate, IEA and IPACE made 54 endorsements and 46 were winners. In the Illinois House, 93 won out of 109 endorsed candidates. Eleven of 14 Congressional seats were won by pro-education candidates.

"Teachers have become an active political force in Illinois," said Reg Weaver, president of the IEA. "In many tight races, we believe they made the difference."

"In the 6th Senate District, we are particularly pleased that Sen. Sam Vadalaabene won, along with Rep. Sam Wolf in House District 111 and Rep. Jim McPike in District 112."

"Teachers are coordinated through local IPACE committees to help candidates with door-to-door canvassing, phone calling, organizing teachers and, most of all, getting out the vote. We are delighted to have Vadalaabene, Wolf and McPike represent and be the voice of public schools and teachers in their area," said Weaver.

The IEA also endorsed Gov. Jim Thompson, Neil Hartigan, new attorney general, Secretary of State Jim Edgar, Comptroller Roland Burris and James Donnewald, new treasurer.

"We look forward to working with all the elected officials. With the economy the way it is, we can anticipate a tough legislative session," said Weaver. "But having helped elect friends of public education, we are hopeful that education will have a stronger voice in Springfield."

"On the national level, the makeup of the new 98th Congress is expected to be more favorable to educational legislation, with 222 pro-education members now in the House of Representatives and in 20 of 32 Senate seats."

"The protest vote against Reaganomics was particularly evident in districts where challengers defeated incumbents, a rarity in politics."

"In Illinois, that was true for Richard Durbin, who won in the 20th Congressional District against Paul Pin-dley, and Lane Evans, who won in the 17th against Ken McMillan."

"Teachers were heavily active in both these campaigns."

"Looking at the incumbents' records on education issues, the challengers were deserving of our support."

ARREST AFTER CRASH

Michael N. Bullock, 61, of 756 Guth was charged last week with failing to give information at the scene of a crash occurring in a Pontoon Road lot near Nameoki Road. There was damage to the left rear of his pickup truck and to the right side of the parked van of Dwayne Welborn, 2326 Buenger Blvd.

TAKES $350 STEREO

Prying a door, a burglar obtained a $350 stereo unit with two speakers and a piggy bank containing $80 last week at the apartment of Kevin Pickens, 2254 Washington Ave.

GC Ice Rink incident charges filed

A Granite City Park District security guard was given police assistant during an incident late last week which resulted in separate charges of battery to a park district employee and disorderly conduct on park property.

Robert E. Fetter, 17, of 1715 Garfield Ave., was charged with battery against the park guard, after Fetter allegedly hit the employee. Daniel J. Jones, 17, of 2227 Hodges Ave., was charged with disorderly conduct, after he was allegedly asked to behave or leave the rink area, prior to the battery incident. According to the police report, Jones interfered during the exchange between the park guard and Fetter.

Jones was released on $25 cash/bail. Fetter was released on $100 cash bail.

Ceremony marks start of construction for Hilton Inn

By JUDY TAPLIN
On a windy afternoon last month with dust whipping over the newly turned earth to the American Bottoms, they held foundation pouring ceremonies for the Hilton Hotel in Eastport Plaza, near Collinsville.

There wasn't a lot to see; some earth-moving equipment pushing back the soil in the distance, a group of men in business suits and S. M. Wilson hard hats gathered around a mike in the foreground.

But it was a significant occasion for the area because the event symbolized the economic upturn the Hilton is expected to achieve.

"That is pretty much what the speakers said. And that is pretty much what the people in the audience said."

"I'm all excited about this project," Collinsville Mayor Gene Brombolich said. "We've been blessed with all the chains (motel chains) coming in. The Hilton, I believe, is going to give the class."

It would not be long, he said, until people here will be saying what the ad says: "Meet you at the Hilton."

Lloyd Farwell, a Hilton Inn senior vice president, said the hotel here will be tied to Hilton's reservations system.

The system has 365 offices through the world and will direct business to the Hilton in Collinsville, he said.

James Stapleton, chief fiscal officer for State Treasurer Jerry Cosentino (attending) noted that the Hilton was the first project to be funded by a new loan program using state investments.

Sen. Sam Vadala, who brought greetings from Gov. James Thompson, who did not attend, Thompson and Cosentino are credited with thinking up the state loan plan that provided the Hilton's financing.

Gary Fears and B. C. Gitchco of Granite City, partners in Collinsville Hotel Partners, the developing company, were introduced.

Fears, who gave everyone a present a small gold-plated shovel as a memento, said the event wouldn't be taking place without the help of a number of people.

One of these people, he said, was the late Ernest Doctor, "who had confidence in the project." Fears said the Hilton would be dedicated to Mr. Doctor's memory.

Later, Mr. Doctor's wife, Helen, embraced Fears and whispered a thank you.

Out in the audience, there were some of the comments: Terry Richter, of Laborer's Local 44, "We've got one man on the job (here) today, and one tomorrow. They'll be hiring more and more all the time. I think this is the start of a lot of good things to come."

Dean Turner of Southwest Illinois Building & Construction Trades Council and Bob Weis of Bricklayers Local 65 for Southwest Illinois echoed Richter's sentiments.

The hotel's construction will eventually provide about 310 construction jobs. On completion, it will create at least 125 permanent jobs.

The 238-room Hilton will be the largest hotel in the metro-east area.

It will offer a seafood specialty restaurant seating 225; a lounge seating 150 and a banquet room with seating for 500.

There also will be meeting facilities, an indoor pool, sauna, game rooms, satellite TV and a tennis court.

Gary Whiteaker Company, a Belleville audio-visual and training film production firm, will locate in the hotel.

The hotel is expected to take between 14 and 18 months to build.

Annual sales tax revenues from the Hilton are expected to be about $350,000, the annual payroll $800,000.

Hilton Inns and Olympia Hotels Corporation will be the hotel's management team.

HILTON GROUNDBREAKING last week, followed by a ceremonial cement pour marked the start of construction of the giant Hilton Inn near Collinsville. At the ceremony,

The hotel's principal subcontractors under general contractor S. M. Wilson of Granite City are MacLair Asphalt, Doctor's firm; Rite Electric; the Murphy Co. and Koeley & Sons.

The architect is Edward Kinney & Associates; engineering is being done by Keene & Associates and Sherbut & Associates.

The ceremonies last week took only a few minutes — a few shovelfuls of freshly poured concrete tossed by a few dignitaries.

But for Gary Fears, who started the project back in 1979 but found himself th-from the left, are State Sen. Sam Vadala (D-Edwardsville), and B.C. Gitchco of Granite City and Gary Fears, partners in the firm developing the hotel.

McKendree offers housing for BAC students

Housing is available for Belleville Area College students in dorms at McKendree College in Lebanon for the spring 1983 semester. Through a cooperative effort by the two colleges,

A double room is $370 for the semester. If available, a single room is $535 a semester. The meal package, which excludes lunch Monday through Friday, is $420.

The activities fee of $25 allows students to participate in evening and weekend activities at McKendree College.

There is limited space, so early application is being advised.

For more information, interested persons may contact the BAC Student Activities Office, room 3280 at the BAC main campus, 2500 Carlyle Road, Belleville, or call 1-235-2700, extension 205; or contact Valerie Thaxton, McKendree Student Affairs Office, Pearson Hall, McKendree College or call 1-337-4481, extension 121.

Sweeper hits station wagon

A Granite City Street Department sweeper hit a parked station wagon loaded with musical instruments late last week, according to a policeman on the scene at 1310 Twenty-Second St., when the accident occurred. The officer reported the street sweeper emptied its sweepings container into a city truck and drove forward before the container had been completely lowered. Driver Mark Siebert stated to officers that the sweeper's container blocked his view when he hit the rear of the vehicle owned by Frank Komoroni, East Alton.

SIUE CONCERT SEASON OPENING

Henry Loew, principal bassist of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra and the Lincoln String Quartet, will be the featured performers when the Symphony and Chamber Orchestras at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville open the University's concert season tomorrow.

The concert will be presented in the Communications Building on the Edwardsville campus. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. Admission is free.

The Lincoln String Quartet, including SIUE music faculty members Kent Perry and John Kendall, violins, Robert Schieber, viola, and Joseph Pival, cello, will open the concert with the Chamber Orchestra, performing Elgar's "Introduction and Allegro" for string quartet and string orchestra. Fred DeVaney, graduate assistant in music from Alton, will conduct.

Professor Schieber will conduct the balance of the concert program, which includes Liszt's "Les Preludes" and Debussy's "Nocturnes."

Loew will perform the "Concerto for Double Bass and Orchestra" by Serge Koussevitzky.

School hiring policy outlined

The Granite City Board of Education has gone on record as endorsing non-certificated, non-supervisory recruitment and placement procedures that assure residents the opportunity to apply for work in the school district.

When positions are open, the board seeks to select "qualified applicants who are judged to be most suited for placement without regard to race, color, sex, religion, national origin or ancestry."

"All candidates for employment with Community Unit School District 9 will be recommended to the board by the superintendent, and shall not be deemed employed or an employee until such status is awarded by the board."

The administration's recruitment and placement procedures are to include:—Minimum qualification requirements for each position, including personality and character traits which reflect job-related characteristics.

"A selection process that will result in responsible administrators having the opportunity to interview applicants judged to have the most merit on the basis of criteria set forth under Policy GCDA as ascertained from available records and applicable references."

"An interview process affording the responsible administrator the opportunity to validate and clarify any information of record, and to judge the applicant's suitability for the particular work situation involving the position."

Since the Holy Ghost is God's way of empowering us for service, shouldn't we receive it without fear? God wants to help you, not harm you. Jesus came that we might have life and have it more abundantly. And he said, "I am going away, but I will send you another Comforter, even the Holy Ghost, and he will abide with you forever!"

What God has promised has been given. Why not ask him for the Spirit? Baptism, he wants you to have?

He will give it to you. Today.

Acts 1:8 — "You shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you."

What a positive statement from God's Word! You shall receive power. And it shall come from the Holy Ghost. Take some advice, please. Do not be afraid of the Holy Ghost. God gave his Spirit so we could have power and so that we can be witnesses for him.

Since the Holy Ghost is God's way of empowering us for service, shouldn't we receive it without fear? God wants to help you, not harm you. question at the time.

"A documentation process assuring adequate recording of reasons for recommending those applicants judged to possess the greatest merit for the position or positions at the time."

"A review process through administrative channels assuring compliance with the policy and adequacy of documentation."

"Provisions that no commitment shall be made or implied by any person as to the possibilities of any applicant being selected for employment prior to such time as authorized by the Board of Education."

"If final recommendation to the board by the superintendent of schools of three applicants for each vacant position and one additional applicant for each additional vacancy, and formal action by the board in accordance with statutory requirements."

Each applicant completes an application form and submits it to the personnel office before being interviewed.

References are checked. When they are consistently favorable, and when minimal test scores where required have been attained, the applicant's name is entered on the active list of applicants.

Applications must be renewed annually to remain active. Candidates for employment are chosen from the list of applicants.

Air Force seeks recruits

More than 78,000 people joined the Air Force during the last 12 months, Air Force Recruiting Service officials said as fiscal year 1982 ended.

Recruiting Service will be seeking another 73,500 people to join the Air Force in fiscal 1983, which began Oct. 1.

1982 Air Force requirements, except those for engineers and some physician specialists.

Among the 78,000 new Air Force members are about 67,500 volunteers who have no previous military experience. More than 93 percent of these are high school graduates.

Six thousand former military members also came into the Air Force, as well as 3,100 college graduates for officer training and 1,600 health care professionals.

This fiscal year, Air Force recruiters will seek about 63,000 volunteers without military experience, 5,800 with military experience, 3,300 college graduates for officer training and 1,100 health care professionals.

OUTING FOR CLUB

The Hills Terrace Birthday Club celebrated its 30th anniversary with a "day out" and dinner at Duff's in Alton.

The club also celebrated the birthdays of Arlene Hickman and Jeri Schieb. Others attending included Alma Davis, Opal Davis, Alma Walk, Judy Eaton, Juanita Barnes and a guest, Karen Gray.

Arlene Hickman will be host to the group at her home for the next meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Doris McKinnon, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Fulmer, Jeri and Karen Schieb, Brenda Richter and son, Norman, and Debbie Kelm have returned home from Branson, Mo., where they spent the weekend visiting various scenic places.

HOLIDAY BANQUET

Chouteau Township Senior Citizens will hold their November meeting on Nov. 18 at 8:30 p.m. with a traditional Thanksgiving dinner.

Turkey will be furnished by the organization and each member will bring covered dishes. After the dinner, the Salem dance group will furnish entertainment.

Teacher load cut

In the last 30 years the number of teachers in Japan has more than doubled so that now the number of students per teacher in primary schools is only 25, in lower secondary schools 20 and in upper secondary schools 19.

Judy Deterding named state gifted teacher

Judy Deterding, Frohardt School learning center teacher, has been selected "Teacher of the Year" by the Illinois Council for Gifted.

The council sponsored the new award in dedication of its founder, Dr. Mary Kooyumjian. The purpose is to recognize individuals who make outstanding contributions to gifted education.

The formal presentation was Nov. 1 at the Illinois State Gifted Conference, attended by 1,500 in Chicago. Merna Musterman, Granite City Community Unit District 9, Gifted Program coordinator, nominated Judy Deterding for the award.

She received $100 to continue her education and a plaque citing her outstanding educational leadership to gifted students in the state.

Judy Deterding currently serves as a member of the National Consortium for State Leadership in the Education of Gifted and Talented Children, whose goal is to raise the level of awareness of those persons who guide gifted children.

In this capacity, she has aided parents and promoted supportive funding legislation. Her expertise in developing appropriate curriculum has been solicited by numerous professional training institutes.

As a teacher working directly with identified gifted students, she is known for her ability to challenge and inspire, stated Merna Musterman.

An example of her "learning made alive" is an overnight student expedition to an archeological dig. Students in her aviation units illustrated their lessons by helping launch hot air balloons, building and launching rockets, co-piloting small aircraft and receiving special instructions from a representative of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA).

"Special people win prizes, and I think she is special," stated one of her students. Other students' comments reflect the impact she has had upon their lives. "She teaches me things I don't learn in the classroom. Learning is fun in her room," stated another student.

A nomination portfolio was submitted which contained several personal testimonials and endorsements from students, parents and colleagues.

TEACHER OF THE YEAR. Judy Deterding, Frohardt School learning center teacher, right, displays a plaque signifying her selection, as the Illinois Council for Gifted "Teacher of the Year." Merna Musterman, Granite City Gifted Program coordinator, placed the local teacher's name in nomination.

Seminar Nov. 16 offers reasons to stop smoking

By JOYCE MITCHELL

St. Elizabeth Medical Center
"Can I quit smoking? No problem; I've done it hundreds of times," and we light another cigarette to soothe the feeling of failure. But, according to Pat Sutton, social worker at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, the important thing is to keep trying and not to be overly concerned about past efforts.

That will be the focus at the medical center's free community seminar on smoking, "Try, Try Again." The seminar will be presented Tuesday, Nov. 16, at 7 p.m. in SEMC's Pascal Hall and is open to the public. The program will consist of information on lung disease, lung cancer, behavior change and a question-and-answer session.

Even though we are aware of smoking, being reminded of those dangers can be a strong motivating force for those trying to quit. Dr. Robert Bruce, specialist in the field of pulmonary medicine, will discuss the effects of smoking on the respiratory system and the ability the body has to repair itself, once smoking stops. Dr. Bruce, who graduated from the University of Minnesota Medical School, served his internship and residency at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, and is an assistant professor in clinical medicine at Washington University and on the staff of St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Dr. William Popovic, whose specialty is hematology-oncology, will talk on "Smoking and Lung Cancer." Dr. Popovic is a graduate of St. Louis University School of Medicine, where he also served his internship and residency. He, too, is on the SEMC staff.

Mrs. Pat Sutton, who holds a master's degree in Social Work, will offer a variety of suggestions to help people give up smoking. She said that because people smoke for different reasons, what is helpful to one person may not be to another. Mrs. Sutton received her bachelor's degree in psychology from the University of Missouri, St. Louis, and a master's from the George Warren Brown School of Social Work at Washington University.

The seminar was planned in conjunction with the American Cancer Society's pre-Thanksgiving "Smoke-Out." This is the sixth year of the "Smoke-Out" campaign, which asks smokers to quit for a 24-hour period and prove to themselves that it can be done. According to their estimations, "If cigarette smoking disappeared entirely, so would 80 percent of the lung cancer," Dr. Popovic said, "If the average person stopped smoking, he could prolong his life by as much as 10 years," which seems to be reason enough to "try, try again."

For reservations, interested persons may call the Public Relations Department at St. Elizabeth Medical Center at 798-3167.

YMCA tenant assault charges

Granite City police officers, responding to a fight late last week at the YMCA, 2001 Edison Ave., found David Femrite, executive director, holding down Michael S. Poss, 30, a YMCA tenant, after Poss allegedly tried to hit Femrite.

According to Femrite's statement to police officers, Poss had complained to the director that his room at the YMCA had been broken into again. Femrite told officers he tried to calm Poss down, who then allegedly swung his fist at Femrite. During the struggle, Poss was pushed into a glass window by Femrite.

Poss was taken to the police department and charged with assault and criminal damage. He pleaded not guilty before Circuit Judge George Moran Jr., who set bail at $1,500.

Motorists view driver kicked

Several motorists watched as four men grabbed Bradley R. Buchheim, Edwardsville, from his pickup truck and beat him at Maryville Road and Route 102 late last week.

According to officers' reports, four men in a gray Volkswagen pulled up behind Buchheim's vehicle and began beating, continuing to kick him after he fell to the ground. He was bleeding from his face at the scene of the attack and his glasses were shattered. The victim was left lying in the road.

Witnesses apparently gave aid to Buchheim as they waited for the police to arrive.

Officers enroute to the scene spotted the alleged attackers' car at 23rd Street and Washington Avenue. The four occupants were taken to the Granite City Police Department and charged with battery.

Charged were Fred H. Tanner, 31, of 1926 Sken St.; Madison; David G. Tanner, 27, and Ronald A. Tanner, 19, both of 1912 Sken St.; Madison, and Calvin L. Meadows, 20, of 2156 Lee Ave. All were released on $102 cash bond.

Buchheim could give no reason for the attack, according to police reports.

Varied special pupil services

The wide range of services being offered in 1982-83 by the Quad-City special education district, Madison County Region I, is being emphasized in contacts with the public by Steve Balen, director.

He explained, "The participating schools of the Region I cooperative, Granite City District 9, Venice District 3 and Madison District 12, make available a free and appropriate special education program and supportive services to resident handicapped children."

"Eligible children, ages 3-21, are provided with services designed to meet the educational needs of visually impaired, health impaired, hearing impaired, physically handicapped, speech and language impaired, retarded, or children with multiple handicapping conditions. "Individuals wishing to refer themselves or their wards should contact the building principal in the school closest to their legal residence or the director of special education at 2080-C Delmar Ave., phone 876-4900," Balen said.

Shirley Trapp, a senior consultant for Matrix Co., in Oklahoma, spoke on the newest ideas and techniques in hair styles to area hairdressers who attended the event.

Club hears Mrs. Hueseman

A program entitled, "All Through The House at Christmastime," was presented by Mrs. Margaret Hueseman at the November meeting of the Garden Study Club, held in her home in Collinsville.

A dessert luncheon was served by the hostess prior to the meeting which was opened with the group repeating the club collect. Roll call was registered as each one answered with the name of their favorite mum.

An invitation was read from the Fairview Heights Garden Club to attend a flower show on Sunday, Nov. 21, at the Caseyville Township building.

Arrangements were finalized for a Christmas dinner on Dec. 1 at the home of Mrs. Lucille Broyles. Each member is to bring a covered dish and wear a self made holiday corsage, created with natural materials.

Mrs. Hueseman displayed many of her paintings and gave each member a packet of seeds to plant in the spring.

Others attending were Mesdames Clara Winter, Mary Stinson, Norma Crenshaw, C. E. Eads, Catherine Kostoff and a new member, Mrs. Helen Mihu.

Moose Lodge fetes members

John Besserman and John Parker, who received Fellowship Degrees at the annual Illinois State Convention in Peoria, Ill., were accorded honors at a Fellowship Breakfast, hosted by the Loyal Order of Moose, Lodge 272.

Breakfast was served to the honorees and other members by the Legion of the Moose committee at the lodge, located at 19th and Adam streets.

During the observance, President Virgil Singler presented the two new members with the fellowship pin and blue tassel.

Secretary Ed Hastain announced the fellowship committee will sponsor the annual ball on Nov. 30 at the lodge featuring The Horizons Band. Tickets will cost $3.50 per person, he added.

Others attending the morning event were, Mr. and Mrs. Al Laney, Mr. and Mrs. George Hancock, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tadlock, Mr. and Mrs. George Lipscomb, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Singler, Walden Coy, Iris Chastain, Cora Besserman, Edna Miller, Margaret Belt and Mildred Votoupal.

New grand chapter committee appointments were announced.

Members who were reported to be ill were John DeHart, Pamela Vasquez, Dora Youngs, and Rose Robinson.

Memorials for two deceased members were established, during the meeting.

Worthy Matron Vee Thorne offered special thanks to the dining room committee for the past three months, who were: Dee Baker, Mary Stewart, and Lois Hebbelwhite. She also thanked Dorothy Watkins for pro-teming in the associate conductress station.

Worthy Patron Jack DeCourcy complimented the officers on their work for the evening, and invited all the members to participate in the refreshments and social in the dining room after the meeting.

Mrs. Thorne made special mention of all the assistance and the transportation provided for her by Earl and Mary French, and thanked DeCourcy and Shirley DeCourcy for the help during the last two years. She also presented a thank you gift to the two men.

Mrs. DeCourcy and Guyula Stuart visited the birthday bank, and Mary-Petrosian banked the anniversary bank.

A costume parade and contest were held in keeping with the Halloween theme. Prizes were awarded to: Wanda and William Macdonough and Karen Goehaour, Little Red Riding Hood, wolf and grandmother, respectively; Carole Downing, Gelsa girl; Mary Hoover, pioneer girl; Mary Petrosian, Dutch girl; Betty Ebrecht, Mrs. Goodwin; Dorothy Watkins, farmer; Arlene Fox, tourist; and Jack DeCourcy, cowboy.

Members were reminded that the next meeting will be held Friday, Nov. 12, 7:30 p.m., and that election of officers for the coming year will take place.

The meeting adjourned, and the members retired to the dining room which was decorated appropriately within the Halloween theme.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pierce

50th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Pierce

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pierce, 9 Country Lane Court, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at a dinner party given in their honor by sisters and a sister-in-law of Mrs. Pierce.

The social event was held at Ackerman's Restaurant in Edwardsville, for relatives and close friends.

Mr. Pierce retired in 1976 from the First Granite City National Bank and Mrs. Pierce retired the same year from International Shoe Co., St. Louis.

Both are members of the First Assembly of God Church, Granite City. Mr. Pierce also was a former member of the Granite City Noon-Day Optimist Club and the Madison Lion's Club.

They were married in Waterloo, Ill., on Oct. 29, 1932.

Dinner Nov. 18 for sr. citizens

A Thanksgiving dinner for members of the Happy Group Senior Citizens Club will be held on Nov. 18 at 1:30 p.m. at the Granite City Township Hall, 2000 Delmar Ave., according to an announcement made at the club meeting, last week.

President Juanita Crawley presided at the session and reports were given by Marie Stanek, secretary, and Vi Scrivner, treasurer.

It was also announced that a bazaar will be held at the center on Nov. 18 from 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., sponsored by the Senior Citizen Council.

Happy birthday congratulations were offered to Edgar Paddock, Imogene Claxton, Alice Cruse, Delores Hills, Beulah Gages, and Nora McLean.

After the business meeting cake and coffee was served followed by an afternoon of games. Prize winners were Katherine Todoroff, John Polson, Effie Johnson, Hildred Schoeble, Evelyn Morgan, Juanita Crawley, Joe Graklanoff, and Martin Schulte.

Button-down collars on men's shirts were introduced in America in 1900. The first ready-made suits for men had appeared much earlier — in the mid-1800s.

Amvets Auxiliary donates funds

The Madison Amvets Auxiliary, Post 204, agreed to prepare and deliver fruit baskets to the veterans at the Elder Care Center in Alton, and to donate funds for other programs, during a meeting held last week.

President Pat Hartman presided as the group agreed to send $285 to the John Tracy Clinic for the Deaf which will totally pay for a complete correspondence course for a pre-school deaf child.

Members also sent $100 to John Cochran Veteran's Hospital for its Christmas fund and $100 to the USO Center at the St. Louis Lambert Field.

The meeting was opened with the Amvets Prayer led by Nell Holshouser followed by a discussion on the children's costume party held during the Halloween weekend. Refreshments were served by Carolyn Gerlach, Sue Reeves, Karen Martin, Donna Wheeler and Hazel Modrusic.

Evadynne Graville and Hilda Graville were appointed co-hostesses for the auxiliary Christmas party set for Dec. 7 at the post home. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. and during the social hour a gift exchange will be held, it was noted.

Betty Bladdick was introduced as a guest for the evening.

Refreshments were served to those named and to Norma Diak, Dorothy Mercer, Evadynne Graville, Kim Hartman, Vi Marcum, Juanita Modrusic, Hazel Modrusic, Mae Jean Adams, Betty Kesterson, Laura Griffith, Judy Diak, Carolyn Gerlach, and Hilda Graville.

The third reunion of 1932 Granite City High School graduates was held at Sunset Hills Country Club in Edwardsville, to mark the 50th anniversary of the January and June classes. James Holland served as master of ceremonies and Norman Holsinger, president of the June class, addressed the assemblage.

Carl Thornsberry represented the January class and also spoke at the festive affair.

Holsinger introduced many of his fellow graduates and conducted the business segment of the program and Thornsberry recalled many of the scientific advances and historical events that have taken place since the early thirties.

Mary Sanders Huffstutler offered the invocation prior to the buffet dinner.

Many of the classmates traveled great distances to attend the social event including those from California, New York, Pennsylvania, Arizona, Kansas, Idaho, Iowa, Illinois and Missouri.

Miss Mary Blackburn, who had been a teacher to many of the former students, also attended the affair.

Former gatherings were in 1938 and in 1972, therefore the evening was spent with all engaged in remembering and renewing old acquaintances.

Those serving on the planning committee were Norman Holsinger, Evelyn Eaton Arbeiter, Marguerite Barker, Alice "Usomer" Fenton, Muriel Nelson Fossieck, Francis Haack, Mary Sanders Huffstutler and Carl Thornsberry.

APA to sponsor fund-raiser

The Association for the Protection of Animals will hold its annual fall white elephant and book sale at the VFW Hall, 2044 Washington Ave., Saturday, Nov. 13, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. There will be no early sales, according to the chairman.

Items available for sale will be assorted household items, dishes, paper and hard bound books.

Proceeds from the event will go to the building fund for completion of the animal shelter on Old Alton Road. In addition, the APA reminds pet owners of the need for adding protection against the colder weather for outdoor pets. Straw is readily available at the present time for insulating pens and dog houses, the chairman noted.

Those who cannot patronize the forthcoming sale but would like to donate to the shelter may mail contributions to the Association for the Protection of Animals, Post Office Box 1311, Granite City, Ill. 62040.

A very sepcial day for 1,000 handicapped youths Bazaar Saturday at Mexican Hall

By TOMMYE WALLER of SIUE

It could have been almost any college town in the United States on a football-splashed afternoon.

Most of the ingredients were there — the pompon girls, the flag wavers, the members of the marching band standing stuffily at attention, the Indian princess in her "rawhide" costume, and the big yellow buses stopping at the curb long enough to discharge their load of human cargo — spotlighted against a blue sky, brilliantly tinted autumn foliage, and campus buildings.

But it wasn't a football afternoon. The advance troops were welcoming some 1,000 handicapped children, their teachers, and friends to the Very Special Arts Festival held annually on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

One of the major events of the National Committee of the Arts for the Handicapped, the Festival demonstrates how the various arts can assist in developing artistic responsiveness and increase general learning achievements among disabled students.

Indeed, it was a moving sight to see a little girl, who appeared to be somewhere in her neighborhood of 5 years old, wheeling another youngster closer to the curb so she could have a better view of the performers on the "chairpin."

On a day destined for wonderful things to happen, it was easy to mentally lift the little girl out of her wheelchair and make her the star performer. The dream quickly vanished when a nearby adult called out, "Don't forget to put her back on."

Keeping track of an eager group of youngsters is no easy task, particularly when they are anticipating a day of fun and games, and the teachers attempted to do it by using variations on the buddy system.

"Don't forget to hold her hand!" "Timmy and I belong in the middle!" "Wait right here!" — and other admonitions really didn't carry much weight in trying to control the active youngsters.

And how is the problem of separating, storing and returning more than 1,000 sweaters, jackets and coats to their rightful owners handled with a minimum of pain? The committee took care of this task by storing the wraps of each teacher's charges in their own individual plastic bag, properly tagged with "teacher's name."

At booths in Meridian Ballroom in the University Center, the children were exposed to a variety of learning experiences directly relating to the arts. The children could have their faces made up as clowns, their photographs taken with a life-size drawing of E.T., or a drawing made of themselves by a bonafide artist.

Experiences also included decorating their own cookies (which quickly disappeared inside the children), painting their own "stained glass" pictures, creating "small" drawings with aromatic watercolors, and-or making Halloween masks from paper plates and suitable paste-ons.

For the child who needed a hug, and there seemed to be a continuous string of them, there was a special hugging booth. Volunteer students and university staff and faculty supplied 50 percent of the action — the children did the rest.

In the Goshen Lounge, a whole slate of activities had been scheduled for the youngsters and their guests, including a kitchen band, square dance troupe, gymnastic team and puppeteers.

In the conference area of the center there were workshops in visual arts, movement, dance, music, songwriting and creative drama for the educators.

Beyond acts there was dancing in the lounge. Not ones to hold back, the young people quickly filled the floor with moving bodies. It was definitely a movement worthy of remembering — both for the participants and for the adults looking on.

And everywhere, colorful rainbows could be seen of the students' volunteers, on the walls, and in the program literature. The national office designated the rainbow as the festival's theme some years ago, members of the local committee attached "The Rainbow Connection," a song taken from the Muppet's first movie.

The idea behind the selection, according to Patricia Goebel, faculty member of the SIUE department of speech communication and chairperson of the first Very Special Arts Festival in 1978, is to give youngsters with handicapping conditions hope and inspiration.

"Disabilities don't make us different, and we are telling them to go for it," she said, adding that, for some children, achievement of their goals won't be easy, but they can be reached, and it's worth the effort.

DeMolay dinner set Nov. 16

Final arrangements for a Thanksgiving dinner to be held at the Masonic Temple, Nov. 16, at 6:30 p.m. were announced at the November meeting of the DeMolay Mothers.

President Ruby Sullivan opened the session by leading the group in repeating the pledge of allegiance and the Mother's Prayer was given by Chaplain Rene Buckingham. The dinner is for the DeMolays and their immediate families, the president added.

In closing, the 17 members recited the Mothers Creed. Hostesses for the evening were Mary Church, Hilda Few and Pat Tsigalofor.

Refreshments were served to those named and to Ginny Totter, Louise Payer, Marlene Forbes, Liz Gibbons, Margaret Glendening, Jo Meyer, Martha Simpson, Beverly Singleton, Mary Stuart, Verna Stuart, Anne Wofford and Debbie Pritchett.

The next meeting is set for 7:30 p.m. on Dec. 7, according to the president.

"Palace Pride" India's beautiful marble Taj Mahal was built three centuries ago by Mogul Emperor Shah Jahan as a mausoleum for his favorite wife, Mumtaz-Mahal, and himself. The wife's name means "Pride of the Palace."

Decorating is program of district homemakers

A program on "Decorating for Special Occasions" was presented by Judy Iselhardt of Edwardsville, at the semi-annual meeting of the South-west District of Madison County Homemakers Extension Association.

The guest speaker, who is well known for her creative and decorative capability, provided discussion, demonstration and a display of items she made from dried flowers, including roadside materials and man made flowers.

She was introduced by Catherine Mauck, Extension Advisor of Home Economics at Edwardsville.

The meeting convened at 7:30 p.m. in the Nameoki United Presbyterian Church with President Elizabeth Schmidt in charge.

There were 62 members and guests present representing five units of this area including Creative Women, Granite City, Isabel Bevier, Trio and Venice-Madison. Creative Unit received the traveling attendance trophy by registering the largest number of members.

Alma Beckmann, secretary, read the minutes of the May meeting and gave a report on members from the district who attended the national session held at the University of Ohio in Columbus. There was a discussion on attending the national conference to be held in August of 1983 in Wyoming.

The treasurer's report was given by Joan Stark. She also reviewed the Country Store and cookie sale project which was a fund raising event to provide money for the district treasury.

Members of the Creative Women Unit volunteered to host the May meeting. A nominating committee was appointed to select a first vice-chairman and treasurer to be installed at the May session for 1983-1984 term.

Martha McIlvroy read the Homemakers Creed to close the meeting. During the social hour guests, Veda Norton, Pat Martin and Jean Wehling from Albemarle, were introduced. Prizes for the day went to Donna Ribble, Veda Norton, Irene Davis, Gail Fritzsche, and Lillian Adams.

Mrs. Ann Pare announced the Granite City Unit will hold its Christmas party on Dec. 7 to begin at 12 noon at the Nameoki United Presbyterian Church. Cost of the dinner is $4 and reservations must be made no later than Dec. 1. Those attending are to bring a $2 gift for exchange. Guests may contact any member of a unit for reservation or more information.

Out of town guests at Legion ceremony

Many out of town guests attended the official ceremony to retire the colors, sponsored by American Legion Post 113, last week at the local post, 1825 State St.

Commander Harold Chandler and Auxiliary President Betty Hardison welcomed members and guests who attended the burning of American flags which were worn and needed to be replaced.

The commander extended special appreciation to Richard Hagen from Granite City High School South who played taps, to Don Electric Co. for use of the flood lights, to the Loyal Order of Moose for its sound system, and to Pete Plante for the use of a trailer used for the burning ceremonial.

Appreciation was also accorded to the 22nd District Honor Guard from Cahokia Post 784 who participated in the observance.

Other guests introduced included John Cox, 22nd District Commander and his wife, Helen, Charlie Creamer, senior vice-commander of the 22nd District from the Venice-Madison Post 307, Glen Smith, junior vice-commander of the 22nd District from Mascoutah, Ill., and his wife Marie, Herb Moff, past commander of Post 937 of Smithton, Ill., and his wife Helen, Alf Jensen, historian of the 22nd District from the East St. Louis Post 53, and his wife, Blaise Magyar, past commander of the Venice-Madison Post 307, Robert Perry, past commander of Fairmont City Post 961, Jim Krystoff, senior vice-commander of Post 961, Bob Barton and Steve Missey, the latter representing St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

After the special service a dance was held in the post hall.

World's fairs There are two categories of world's fairs, universal and special. The first is designed to "illustrate progress in all branches of human endeavor," the second (such as the special fair in Knoxville this year on "Energy Turns the World") is devoted to a single theme.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Mexican Honorary Commission will sponsor a Christmas bazaar on Saturday at the Mexican Club Hall, 1001 Spruce St.

Mrs. Ofelia Antoff, auxiliary president, announces the fund raising project is open to the public and will begin at 9 a.m.

Members have been involved in sewing, crocheting, knitting and creating handmade items throughout the year to prepare for the annual event, the president added.

The main features of the bazaar will include a craft booth where Christmas ornaments, wreaths, dolls, miniature rocking chairs, hobby horses, children's aprons, table place settings and Christmas stockings will be exhibited.

Items in other booths will be hand-crocheted baby afghans, hats and scarves, and a booth for hand-painted ceramic yuletide articles as well as a wide variety of candles.

Another booth will offer hand painted pinatas to be filled with candy, gifts and pennies and then broken by children during the holiday season.

A "bargain basement" will be set up on the lower level of the building where many used seasonal items of clothing, toys, household goods and paperback books will be for sale.

There also will be refreshments served during the day long program, the president noted.

Girl Scout council honors volunteers

At its annual fall meeting the River Bluffs Girl Scout Council recognized several of its outstanding adult volunteers.

Recipients of the "Thanks Badge," the highest adult award given in Girl Scouting, were Dr. Katie Wright and Dr. Glenn Tockstein. An assistant professor of Education at Harris-Stowe State College, Dr. Wright currently serves on the GSUSA National Board of Directors and its committees as well as our Council Board.

Putting his degree in biochemistry and engineering to good use, both professionally as a clinical biochemist and voluntarily in his demonstrated enthusiasm for Girl Scouting, Dr. Tockstein's contributions to Girl Scouting is immeasurable, the council noted.

Other very special persons recognized for outstanding achievement were Sally Norris, Judy Dickover and Pat Schmitt. They received Appreciation Pins in acknowledgement of their unique value to the council. Phil Montalvo and Karl Deschimer were awarded plaques in appreciation for the excellent job they did as the 1982 co-chairmen of the Friends of Girl Scouting campaign.

Library service award recipients were honored as were new and experienced trainers and day camp director. Terry Lee Hoffman was given special recognition for her efforts to run day camp for three consecutive weeks while working full time and managing a family.

Church of God bazaar Friday

The annual Christmas bazaar, sponsored by members of the Church of God of Prophecy, 1782 Rhodes St., Madison, will be held Friday and Saturday, Nov. 12 and 13, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the church hall, according to the chairman of the project.

Among the gift items to be displayed and offered for sale will be holiday tree ornaments, pillow cases, baby quilts, afghans, potholders, stuffed animals, refrigerator magnets, quilt tops and pillows.

Also there will be a booth for homemade fudge, fresh baked pies, cakes, cookies and rolls, as well as a table featuring white elephant articles.

The church is located directly across the street from Louis Roper School, the chairman added.

Ryterski in jazz concert

Craig Ryterski, 2501 Cleveland Blvd., was among the musicians when Southern Illinois University at Carbondale's University Jazz Band gave its annual fall performance Tuesday in Shroyer Auditorium, Carbondale.

The 20-piece big band, under the direction of Robert E. Allison, an instructor in the School of Music, played contemporary compositions as well as music from past jazz eras. The program will include Sammy Nestico's "Freckle Face," "Go Fill Your Dreams," "Scott's Place" and "Ja Ja," Don Manna's "Groove Blues," Bob Siebert's arrangement of "Come Fly With Me," "It Only Happens Every Time" by Thad Jones, "Groove Merchant" by Jerome Richardson, Bob Mintzer's arrangement of Herbie Hancock's "One Finger Snap," and the Billy Byers arranged "All of Me."

PARTICIPATES IN ARMS EXERCISE

Marine First Lieutenant David A. Fuzessery, son of Frank J. and Julia A. Fuzessery, 1430 Madison Ave., participated in "Combined Arms Exercises 1-28 and 1-83" in Yuma, Ariz. He is an officer assigned to Marine Observation Squadron One, Marine Corps Air Station (helicopter) New River, Jacksonville, N.C. Conducted at the Marine Corps Air Ground Combat Center, Twenty-nine Palms, Calif., both exercises involved intensive training in tactical formations, low-level navigation, ordinance delivery and forward air control. Additionally, his squadron conducted photographic reconnaissance and helicopter escorts in support of Marine ground forces.

Benefits of export marketing discussed

More than 250,000 people are gathering in Washington, D.C., to pay tribute to the 2.7 million Americans who served in Vietnam and to dedicate the Vietnam Veterans Memorial.

More than 20 businessmen and women in the area attended an all-day conference at Belleville area College on export marketing. Benefits of export marketing, such as improvement in profits and productivity and the leveling out of seasonal variations in the domestic work force were discussed.

A panel of experts in the field spoke on different topics relating to exporting and answered questions from the audience. Antoinette Vazquez of the Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs discussed exporting, marketing and international business. She also gave an overview of assessing export potential, measuring markets, locating foreign representatives and sources of information on export marketing.

Another speaker, Audrey Marsh King, chairman of the St. Louis Area District Export Council, told of success stories in exporting. Fidelity Lucas, president of Luke International Consultants, talked about business aspects of exporting, such as setting up an export department, satisfying government regulations and financing exports.

Opening remarks were given by Rep. Coleste Stiehl and BAC President Bruce Wisore. According to Mrs. Scruggs, 50,000 participants are expected in Saturday's parade. "The theme of the parade is 'Marching Along Together' and will include participants from the major veterans organizations, service organizations such as the American Red Cross and the USO and state units. The 25 grand marshalls will include Congressional Medal of Honor winners from Vietnam sports stars, such as former Pittsburgh Steeler Rocky Bleier, government officials and officers and enlisted Vietnam veterans sent on active duty."

Actor Jimmy Stewart hosted a special entertainmenters' salute last night. Today and Friday there are various Veterans Day ceremonies and concerts as well as unit reunions and receptions. On Saturday, there will be a grand parade down Constitution Avenue beginning at 10 a.m. followed by a 2:30 p.m. dedication of the Memorial at the site on the mall. On Sunday, religious services will be held throughout the country. According to Mrs.

Early fort recalled by GC student

The November 1982 issue of Illinois History magazine — a publication for teenagers sponsored by the Illinois State Historical Society — features "Forts and Camps in Illinois."

One of the articles is by Matt Sheridan, a student at Granite City High School South.

Writing on "Fort de Chartres: The French Pride," Sheridan notes that "after French explorers claimed the Mississippi River Valley for their king, the government established a series of forts to protect their holdings and promote trade."

"About 1720, the French built the first of three forts known as Fort de Chartres. The original was destroyed by flood, and the second deteriorated."

"The third Fort de Chartres was one of physical strength and economic productivity."

"Constructed four miles west of Prairie du Rocher, Ill., on the Mississippi River, it was under the supervision of engineer Jean Baptiste Sauver and Commandant Richard Marckay."

"This third fortress was begun in 1763 and required three years to complete."

"Fort de Chartres was part of the French colonial system under King Louis XV. It was later described by a British officer, Captain Philip Pittman, as 'the most commodious and best built fort in North America.'"

"With a force of between 200 and 300 men, this fort was not only militarily important, but it also became the seat of civil government in the Illinois country. The recording of deeds and transactions was performed by civil servants who worked at the fort."

"As part of the judicial system, a registrar recorded deaths, wills, marriages, and the sale of slaves in these early times."

"At the peak of the French development, 2,000 villagers lived in the community along with approximately 500 slaves," Sheridan relates.

"Fort de Chartres became economically important to other parts of the French colonial empire and the motherland."

"Most of the settlers in the area were land-owning farmers. Wheat was their largest commercial crop."

"They also produced oats, hops, hemp, tobacco and vegetables. During the winter of 1746 upward of 8,000 weight of flour was sent down river to New Orleans."

"On community property, cattle grazed; these were subsequently shipped to the north and south. Game such as venison and bear products were also sold at the market in the village."

"The fort was known as 'the center of life and fashion in the West.'"

"The French were light-hearted people, and this was obvious in their lifestyle. The more prominent villagers enjoyed the wealth of silver and fine linens in their homes, even though all of the houses were of similar exterior structure."

"Drinking, dancing and playing games were an integral part of the social life of the community."

"Just as Paris is the capital of the fashion world today, Fort de Chartres became a fashion center, too. Women wore elegant gowns of satin, and jewels were often found on the fabrics."

"The trading of rich furs and other commodities afforded the villagers these luxuries."

"As the years passed, the enthusiasm for productivity decreased as the French chose not to struggle against the Indians in northern areas or English encroachments on their territories."

"On Oct. 10, 1765, the English, led by Captain Thomas Stirling, marched through the gates of Fort de Chartres."

"The cannon of the mighty fortress never fired a shot."

"French control had become the victim of the French and Indian War. And with the British victory, France had lost her once proud possession in Illinois."

War Department created. The War Department was created by Congress on Aug. 7, 1789.

Early reservations suggested for SIUE Autumn Festival for Children

Reservations now are being accepted for the Autumn Festival for Children, Tuesday, Nov. 16, at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Patterned after the European Children's Fest, the festival is designed to delight, motivate and educate area preschoolers, kindergartners and first and second graders. It is scheduled from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in Meridian Ballroom. Admission is free.

This year's festival spotlights SIUE's Spinner the Clown, also known as Donald Darnell, associate professor of elementary and early childhood education. He will be assisted by Bob Williams, also an associate professor in the same department. Preceding the clown act will be a dental magic show featuring Dr. Joseph Sim of the School of Dental Medicine.

Other performers include Ronald McDonald, musical groups, mime, gymnastic demonstrations, dance troupes and musical instrument sessions.

Children also will share the spotlight. New at this year's festival is a children's clown art contest, which will feature Darnell's collection of clown drawings and writings by children throughout the world.

All performers and people planning the festival are volunteers. Helping to coordinate activities are students from a public relations class, the University Ambassadors, elementary education majors, Public Relations Student Society of America representatives and student performers.

Last year, the festival was recognized for its community relations efforts by receiving a national citation from the Council for Advancement and Support of Education.

Because space is limited, registration is on a first-come, first-served, basis. Reservations may be made by calling the SIUE Information Center at 1-692-2739.

JUST CLOWNING AROUND. Spinner the Clown will again be captivating children, parents and teachers at the Autumn Festival for Children Tuesday, Nov. 16, at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. This year's festival runs from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Spinner the Clown actually is Donald Darnell, associate professor of elementary and early childhood education at SIUE.

Financial assistance available

Governor James R. Thompson has outlined details of a new program that provides financial assistance in the form of scholarships to talented, low-income youth who wish to be trained in an aspect of the high technology field.

The program is being implemented by the Department of Commerce and Community Affairs (DCCA) in 10 Illinois regions.

"No bright Illinois students should be collecting a college education because of financial constraints," Thompson said. "We have pooled $30,000, split evenly between Community Service Block Grant funds and DCCA job training dollars, and are offering it to qualify students interested in the high tech field."

Under the High-Tech Assistance Training Program, money will be provided to economically disadvantaged community college students to help fund an education in areas such as computer science, electronics, engineering and medicine. The program is open to all with an emphasis on youth.

Up to $1,000 per academic year will be provided to eligible students as a supplement to their financial aid packages. The scholarships will complement money obtained through existing financial assistance sources. The $300,000 will be available to community college students in 10 state regions for the academic year ending August 1983. After that, a statewide program will be administered.

The money will be allocated by 10 local community action agencies that serve 17 Illinois counties. These agencies include the City of Chicago's Department of Human Services, Business and Economic Development Association of Cook County, Peoria Citizens Committee of Economic Development, Vermillion County Citizens Action Committee for Economic Opportunity, Embarras River Basin Agency, Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission, St. Clair County Community Action Agency, Kankakee County Community Action Program and Rockford Human Resources Department.

"To make this program a success, private industry must get involved in helping to further the education of thousands of ambitious youth who'll qualify for scholarships," Thompson said. "I am calling on businessmen and industry leaders to work with DCCA, local community colleges and local agencies to be a part of this program."

Peters wins bid for port snow removal

The Tri-City Regional Port Authority Board Monday night awarded a contract to C.D. Peters Construction Co. for the removal of snow this winter from port district roads and parking lots.

The Granite City-based Peters company was the only bidder this year for the seasonal work and was awarded the same contract last year, when it was the lowest bidder.

A comparative breakdown of the new bid for materials, per ton, with last year's bid in parenthesis, follows:

—Calcium chloride $359 ($300).
—Salt $46 ($46).
—Cinders $12.50 ($11.50).
—Sand $575 ($575).
—Slag $695 ($695).

Following is a comparison of the hourly wages bid by Peters this year, with last year's bid in parenthesis:

—Equipment operator $27.95 ($26.25).
—Operator overtime $41.90 ($41.25).
—Truck driver $25.15 ($24.50).
—Driver overtime $37.75 ($36.75).

Equipment rental on an hourly basis remained unchanged from last year's bid.

A resolution was read by port authority Attorney Randall Robertson which negates previous resolutions and sets forth funding for the reconstruction of the Bi-State Dock on the Tri-City Port harbor.

The cost of the work, $129,105, will be shared equally by the port district and the St. Louis Terminals Corp. Each will pay approximately $64,552 for the work, which also will be done by the C.D. Peters company.

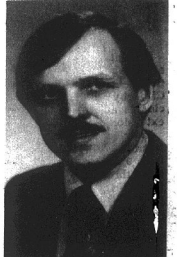

The actual reconstruction will be done in two phases to allow uninterrupted use of the dock facilities during the period.

Half of the work will begin immediately and will continue through the fall and into winter. The remainder of the work will be completed in the spring of next year.

The final payment for the new port district office building, shared with the Bulk Service Corp., was approved by the board. It was explained that the payment of $62,178 included $1,686 to be paid by Bulk Service for special equipment needed by the company at the new building.

Carl Ranft, general manager of the port district, reported that total cost of the building is $533,489.47.

Several members of the board accepted an invitation to tour the Chrysler Corp. assembly plant in Fenton, Mo., on Monday, Nov. 15. The Foreign Trade Zone at the port is working with Chrysler to help delay the payment of duties on imported parts and a foreign trade subzone has been created at Chrysler under sponsorship by the local trade zone.

Hold closed meeting on Brandon Heights sewers

The public and press representatives were excluded from a special meeting of the Madison County Sewer Committee at 6 p.m. yesterday which was called to discuss the Brandon Heights sewer problem.

Committee members indicated they were going to meet in executive session to discuss possible litigation, which is allowed under the Illinois Open Meetings Act. Two reporters and one Brandon Heights resident were excluded when the committee met behind closed doors.

At 7 p.m., the committee met in open session for its regular meeting, but did not discuss the Brandon Heights situation, other than to say that another special meeting on Brandon Heights will precede the next regular meeting Nov. 24.

Brandon Heights residents sued the county when they discovered that the sewers for their homes had been installed directly behind their homes, rather than in the easements at the back of their lots. The placement of the sewers prohibited them from adding rooms to the

Arrest in shooting

Bernard D. Campbell, 25, Centerville, was arrested Monday and charged with aggravated assault in connection with the shooting of a man who appeared at the door of a Mitchell home Saturday night with gunshot wounds to his head, shoulder and back. The victim was Willie Macklin, 35, also of Centerville.

A second suspect is being sought by Madison County detectives.

Campbell was arrested after Macklin was questioned by authorities. Macklin was released Tuesday from St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Macklin first told police that he was abducted from his home at gunpoint by two men, whom he did not know, but later told detectives he was too frightened to identify the men.

Campbell allegedly went to Macklin's home and accused him of taking a pair of shoes, authorities said.

Macklin was given shelter by Betty Louise Bladick, of the 700 block of Carolyn Drive after he stumbled to her door and asked for help. Campbell is being held on $40,000 bond.

Free diabetes testing Friday

As part of National Diabetes Month, St. Elizabeth Medical Center in Granite City and the Greater St. Louis Affiliate of the American Diabetes Association is offering a free diabetes screening test to community residents tomorrow from 2 to 8 p.m. The screening will take place in the Wiesman Room located on the first floor of the hospital.

Diabetes now is the nation's third leading cause of death by disease and the number one cause of new blindness. People at greatest risk of developing diabetes are overweight, more than 40 years of age and have blood relatives with the disease.

For an accurate test, a person must have eaten at least 100 grams of carbohydrates two hours prior to the test. Do not eat or drink anything else in the two-hour period preceding the test, doctors advise. A meal consisting of a sandwich (two slices of bread - 30 grams), french fries (20-34 grams), pie (one piece - 45 grams) and milk (one cup - 12 grams) would be suitable prior to testing.

Other meal plans, the carbohydrate values of many common foods, and pre-test information may be obtained by calling St. Elizabeth Medical Center at 798-3144, or the Diabetes Association at 1-314-688-3196. Known diabetics, including borderline cases, will not be tested.

FAILURE TO APPEAR

Warriors face Downers Grove in tourney opener

By NANCY WEIL
of the Press-Record

Granite South will play Downers Grove South tomorrow at noon in the first game of the state soccer finals at New Trier West High School.

It will be the Warriors' first step toward a possible sixth state championship in eight appearances in the finals.

"We're looking at it (the game against South) in a very realistic way...It's going to be a tough game."

*Chuck Novotny
Mustang's soccer coach*

"We're having a good run of it," Novotny said.

are no superstars on the team in the coach's opinion although there are several players to watch for.

center forward with 15 goals, and Al Marr, a senior wing with 12 goals, will form the basis of the offensive attack.

Goalkeeper Joe Novotny, the coach's son, has played well this year and was credited with a 3-0 shutout against highly-rated Hoffman Estates in the final game of the Mt. Prospect Sectional.

Hoffman Estates took five shots on goal that game, but Downers Grove's 16, Novotny made three saves.

While Friday's game will mark the Warriors eighth appearance in the state finals, it will be the Mustang's first shot at the championship.

City will be no exception," Novotny said.

Although the Warriors played Northern powers New Trier and Evanston, both members of the Elite 8, during the regular season, this year's state tournament will generally be like the others with South entering games against teams they have not seen this year. Such is the case with Downers Grove.

"We have a history of not playing well in the first game," said Gene Baker, south coach. Historically, there has not been time to scout the team South plays in the opening round, he said.

Baker has, however, heard about the Mustang's mobility. After arriving in Northfield, Baker will be able to watch the other teams to determine what type of strategy to use against them if the Warriors win their first round.

"In the tournament, there's a great deal of strategy, organization and preparation," he said.

There is a noticeable difference between Northern and Southern Illinois soccer and Baker said that in the past, "there are many things we've brought up North."

The Warriors have introduced the long throw-in to Northern schools and that style was adopted, he said.

If the Warriors defeat Downers Grove, they will play the winner of the Senn vs. Malta game in the first semi-final game at 9:30 a.m. Saturday.

All games will be played at New Trier West High School.

Illinois' prep 'elite eight' set for state tourney

In the final game of soccer sectional play, Senn High School defeated Amundsen High School 2-1 Tuesday for the championship of the Chicago Public League.

Senn will play Malta High School in the second game of the tournament tomorrow in Northfield at New Trier West High School. The game is scheduled for 2 p.m. and will follow the opening game of the finals between Granite South and Downers Grove South at noon (see related story).

Both Senn and Malta were underdogs coming into post-season play. Senn finished third in the conference, having lost to first-place Amundsen, twice during the regular season. Senn has a 10-8-3 record.

Malta beat St. Charles 1-0 to advance to the Elite 8. St. Charles was undefeated before that game and finished the season 23-1-3.

With an enrollment of 115, Malta is believed to be the smallest school ever to participate in the state finals. Despite the size, Malta has surprised soccer enthusiasts around the state and now has a 20-7 record.

Playing in the Little 10 Conference, Malta has earned the reputation of having a good offensive attack with scoring potential coming from any of the 10 field players. The fullbacks pass well to the front and tend to keep the ball out of the backfield.

Host team, New Trier, will play Hinsdale South in the third game of the finals at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow. New Trier is 16-5-2 this season and has recorded three shutouts during regional and sectional competition.

Illinois State Tournament

Senior goalkeeper Charlie Talbot at 6-foot 1-inch has 12 shutouts with nine goals against and has been named "Athlete of the Week" by the Chicago Tribune.

New Trier defeated Glenbrook North 1-0 in the regional final and shutout highly ranked Wheeling 5-0 in regional play. To win the Glenbrook North Sectional, New Trier beat Palatine 3-0.

With a defense led by seniors Brian Sullivan, Joe Cole and Robbie Smith, New Trier seldom lets the ball into the backfield. Midfielder-striker Chris Rossiter, who has 19 goals and 10 assists, should spark the offense.

Hinsdale South's scoring attack is led by senior striker Srdjan Grbic who set a school record this year with 38 goals and 22 assists. Grbic, the son of assistant Chicago Sting coach Mike Grbic, was worried at the beginning of the season that he would receive credit only because of his father. Chicago-area sportswriters, however, say that the younger Grbic has thoroughly established himself as an exceptional prep player regardless of his lineage.

Springfield-Lanphier will play Evanston in the fourth game of the finals at 7 p.m. tomorrow.

Lanphier upset Quincy Senior High School 2-1 to win that sectional and will go down in history as the first representative of Springfield to compete in the finals.

Randy Gibson, Lanphier coach, says his team is balanced, mature and patient without depending on one particular player. The Lions are 13-4-2.

Evanston is 17-1-3 and the lone loss was to Granite South by a 4-1 score during the Glenbrook North Tournament early in the season. Evanston was the first Illinois team to score against the Warriors and held that distinction until the Quincy Notre Dame game which ended 2-1 for South.

Senior goalkeeper Harold Bailey has allowed 16 goals and is credited with 13 shutouts for Evanston. He has a .78 goals against average.

Mike Roettig, with 15 goals, Mark Success and Errol Wisdom are the three key offensive players for Evanston with Devon Allen, a 5-foot, 3-inch speedster in the midfield. Allen started the season in the back and was pulled up by coach Tom Charnela.

Chicago Tribune sportswriter John Leptich, who has followed the Northern Illinois teams throughout the year, said that if any team can beat South in the tourney it will be Evanston "and if not Evanston, then New Trier."

South has, however, not only defeated Evanston, but also beat New Trier 1-0 in the Glenbrook tourney.

The semi-final game between the winner of the New Trier vs. Hinsdale South game and the Lanphier vs. Evanston game will be played at 11:30 a.m. Saturday. The final game is at 7 p.m. Saturday.

Directions to West Campus Field, Northfield

Directions to the state soccer tournament at New Trier West High School in Northfield are: I-270 east to I-55 north, Chicago exit. Follow I-55 north all the way to the suburban Chicago area past Joliet to I-294 (Tri-State Tollway). The Tollway will cost $1 with three 30-cent tolls and one 10-cent toll. Exact change will make passage along the Tollway much faster. Follow I-294 approximately 12 miles to Willow Road. The Tollway to Willow Road runs through several suburbs and past O'Hare International Airport, which will be on the left just before the suburb of Des Plaines.

Exit I-294 to Willow Road on the right and travel east to Northfield on Willow Road approximately 3 1/2 miles to Happ Road (just west of the Edens Expressway). Turn south (right) on Happ Road and follow it past two stop signs to Winnetka Avenue. New Trier West High School is at the corner of Happ Road and Winnetka Avenue. The address is 7 Happ Road.

For those who will not travel directly to the tournament and will go instead to hotels or motels in suburbs north of New Trier West, it is easiest to reach the games by driving south on the Edens Expressway to Willow Road. Pass the first intersection of Willow and Happ roads (Happ Road will be on the right) just off the Edens and continue approximately 1/2-mile west on Willow to Happ Road on the left (south).

Follow the same directions, two stop signs on Happ Road to Winnetka Avenue and the high school.

It is recommended that those people traveling to the area arrange to arrive between morning, noon and evening rush hours.

The entire drive will take approximately 5 1/2 hours with rest breaks. There are an abundance of gas stations, restaurants and rest areas along I-55.

Tickets are $10 for the entire tournament and $3 per session.

Red Devils, vintage 1935, called one of the best

By AL BARNES
of the Press-Record

Venice High School's record in Illinois high school basketball is, without a doubt, one of the most brilliant in the state with one championship (Class A in 1975) and a third-place finish in 1973.

The Illinois state crown was won under the coaching of a former Venice High grad, Rich Essington, a player who, along with a Madison High star, John (Champ) Summers, teamed up to give the Southern Illinois U. at Edwardsville Cougar cagers their first winning season (1972) in the school's young history under then first-year coach, Jim Dudley.

This story, however, is about another outstanding Venice High basketball aggregation, the 1935 Red Devils.

In addition to posting a winning season, the Venice High quintet of that period was notable not only for its great record but for playing at a time when the "center jump" was still used after each basket was scored and having on its roster a free-throw shooter, one Howard Musick, who was almost superhuman at the charity line. He won the conference free throw crown and missed just one... repeat... missed just one free throw the entire season.

The 1935 Venice five was coached by Carl Reed, who is believed now deceased.

I talked to several of the players on that '35 Venice High quintet. Most helpful was Wesley Edwards, now a ballf in the County Court House at Edwardsville.

"We played then in the M-B-C conference, which was made up of schools, the best I can remember, from Trenton, Troy, Livingston, Pocahontas and, of course, Venice. We had a group of fellows all of whom were dedicated to playing for the good of the team. And, best of all, in those days of the Depression, of having fun."

Edwards ticked off the names and details of most members of the 1935 Venice team as if it were only last year, in most cases. However, there were a few he had lost contact with, and he urges, if any reader now knows the whereabouts of any to mail the information to the Press-Record.

Two starters, he recalled, were Gilbert Hall, center and now a resident of Granite City, and Walter "Buck" Simmons, also of Granite City, and clerk of the United States Appellate Court in Mt. Vernon. The now son of what portly Simmons was a thin and slender guard back there in 1935, says Edwards.

Edwards adds: "Another guard, Herb McDavid, now lives in California. Another defender, Bob Heagy, went into the U.S. Navy and during World War II was stationed Down Under and met and married an Australian lass and decided to make his home there. Nat Fox went into the Army and is now stationed in Japan. Carl Byrnes, now living in Troy, was a fast, little forward. Ed Foley, a guard, was our captain who insisted on good behavior at and in all our games."

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Foley is the father of the Press-Record's photographer, Patrick Foley.)

Another guard, John Schaffner, is a resident of Oak Lawn near Chicago. And, rounding out the team was Wilburn McKay of Mitchell. I have lost contact with Jim Hunter. He is, however, believed to be living.

Both Foley and Edwards couldn't recall if the school's nickname back then was the "Red Devils." Present Venice High basketball coach Ken Perkins, who played his prep basketball at Granite City Senior High (now South), said: "I do know that Venice High players were called the Red Devils at least in 1973."

In conclusion, there is one stark impression which has one looking over the '35 Venice squad: the lack of towering height now possessed by the bulk of prep cage teams today. The coach, at 6-1 was the tallest man in the team picture.

Madison hoop games to benefit needy families

The Madison Schools Fellowship Christian Athletes along with Larry Graham and the high school and junior high school basketball teams will sponsor a charity benefit game on Friday, Nov. 19 at 6:30 p.m. and 8 p.m.

The purpose of the games are to raise food baskets for needy families of Madison. This would be a good chance to come out and see the 1982 Trojan Basketball Team. The Middle School's seventh and eighth grade basketball teams also look good. Come out for an evening of fun and see two good basketball games.

In the preliminary game, the seventh grades and faculty will take on the eighth graders.

At 8 p.m., the varsity will take on the sophomores. Prices will be 50-cents or two can goods for students and three can goods for adults. Advance sale of tickets for can goods will be in Room 109.

Tickets will be sold Monday through Friday. The time of the ticket sales will be 7:30 a.m. to 9 a.m. in the morning and 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. in the afternoon.

Trojans lose; end season 0-8

MADISON — The Madison High School football season almost ended its season on a positive note last Saturday. The Trojans came within 36 seconds of winning their first game of the season against Freeburg. But in that final minute of the game, the Middlets scored to squeeze out a 29-26 victory.

It was the Trojans eighth loss in as many games. For the Trojans and coach Al Vanderhaar, the 1982 season was to be a year of new beginnings. Saturday's game was nearly that. The Trojans came close (36 seconds close) to a beginning that would have made 1982 a little easier.

Wiser to compete in state harrier meet Saturday

Granite City South's freshman cross-countryer Lora Wiser will be the only harrier from Granite City to compete in the state cross-country meet Saturday.

Wiser calmly finished ninth last week in the individual standings and was the fifth best qualifier who wasn't on a qualifying team. The top four teams and the top seven runners not on those teams qualified for the state meet.

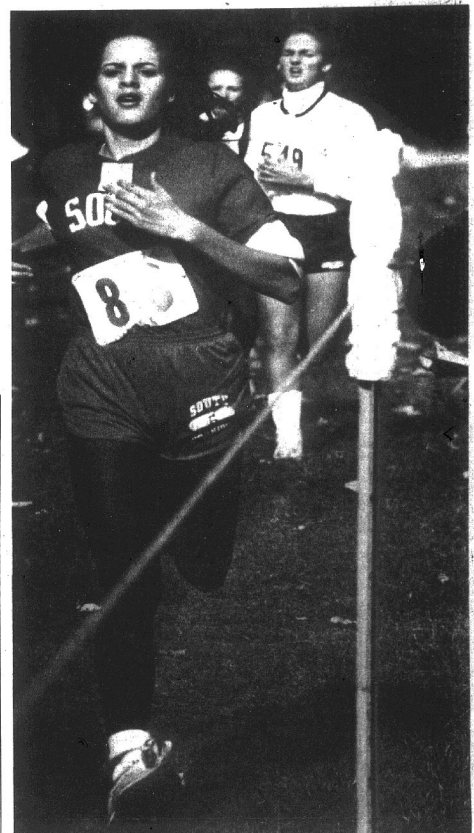

Last week, in the Springfield-Lanphier Sectional Meet, Wiser crossed the finish line with an even time of 12 minutes.

Granite City North's best hope this season was Jim Robertson. Robertson ran the three-mile course in 15:58, which was good for 17th place overall. That time, however, was not good enough to qualify him among individual runners thus eliminating him from state competition. Only the top seven runners not members of those qualifying teams advance to the state meet.

The starting time for the state meet at Detweiler Park in Peoria is 10:45 a.m.

Lauher named to head Cougar Club

Tom Lauher has been named president of the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Cougar Club, an organization of Metro-East businessmen, residents, and SIUE alumni, formed to promote fan support and coordinate fund raising for the University athletic program.

Announcement of the appointment was made by SIUE Athletic Director Ed

Bigham. Lauher, vice-president of Winfield Advertising Agency, Inc., St. Louis, was teaching assistant in the SIUE School of Business and worked at the university offices of the Regional Council on Inter-Institutional Cooperation while completing his Master of Business Administration degree in 1976. Originally from Edwardsville, he received a baccalaureate degree in communication arts from Michigan State University.

"The Cougar Club has grown steadily, keeping pace with the growth of our sports program," Bigham said, noting this year's addition of intercollegiate women's soccer. "Cougar Club financial support is crucial if the athletic program is going to continue to grow."

dimension of sports drama we hope will excite the entire area."

For additional information about the Cougar Club or to become a member, interested persons may contact Bigham at the SIUE Athletic Department, 1-800-287-1.

Friends can help ease impact of unemployment

By CATHERINE MAUCK
Homenaking Adviser

Most of us get by with a little help from our friends from time to time, but some types of crisis make relying on those we know and care about more difficult than others.

Unemployment can result in two problems: increased stress and also loss of support.

A major component of a person's social world is built around ties with workmates. But at the very time that unemployment makes one's contact with work associates more important, it also serves to isolate the out-of-work individual.

Researchers have found that the impact of many life crises can be lessened by a support system composed of friends, family and work associates who offer assistance through emotional support and specific assistance in solving problems connected with the crisis.

The expression "Oh, my friends were just wonderful" is commonly heard from people who have just been ill or lost a family member or gone through a divorce. During such times of crisis, friends can indeed help you cope.

However, when you lose your job, you also become dislocated from an important part of your support system for coping with crisis — your friends and peers at work.

In addition to losing daily contact with people they otherwise might have counted on for support, some out-of-work individuals face additional problems caused by the sense of shame and depression that frequently accompanies the loss of a job.

While it is natural to feel anger and resentment after losing a job and to say you never want to see, hear or think about the company again, it is important to remember the friends you might be shutting out in the process, too.

The unemployed may find coping with job-loss easier — or at least somewhat less painful — if they make the effort to maintain contact with close family members, friends and workmates.

One way to do so is to remain involved in unions and other work-related organizations.

In addition to helping you keep in touch with friends, maintaining your involvement in union or professional activities may help you get a lead on a new job, although such involvement may not be attractive to the newly unemployed.

Friends and family members of jobless individuals can help them through the crisis by letting such persons know they are cared for and valued — and that they're still part of the circle of friends.

If you're trying to help someone who's just lost his job, do not try overly hard to avoid the topic of work if that's been a standard topic of conversation.

If the person says he'd rather not talk about work, then don't. But he needs to feel he still shares some common concerns and obligations with friends, even though he may not share the same daily routine at the moment.

Offering support to a friend or family member who is out of work won't change the fact of unemployment, but doing so can go a long way toward easing the emotional pain associated with it.

If you can help someone who's out of work to better handle the crisis, you've gone a long way in easing his or her burden.

ON SCHEDULE. Brick work continues on the Multipurpose Building at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and officials of the Illinois Capital Development Board are optimistic that the $12 million project will be completed early next year. Governor James Thompson has released $786,900 for the purchase of equipment for the building, which will include a swimming pool, a 5,000-seat gymnasium and facilities for gymnastics, handball, volleyball, wrestling, racquetball, badminton, weight training, track and tennis, as well as offices and classrooms. The flexibility of the multipurpose gymnasium will allow various functions to occur simultaneously by the use of movable bleachers, folding curtains and a movable stage. The facility will meet the necessary acoustical and lighting requirements to stage various large-scale shows, concerts, dances and other special events.

Watershed tour highlights soil conservation meeting

A tour of the Highland Silver Lake Watershed area will highlight the annual meeting of the Illinois Chapter Soil Conservation Society of America, tomorrow and Saturday at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Highland Silver Lake is a pilot experimental project for controlling water quality. The lake is one of three in the nation that is being monitored to find the success rate of controlling water pollution and soil erosion.

The tour is from 1:15 to 5 p.m. on Friday. Wayne Kenney from the Madison County Soil & Conservation District will lead the tour.

Saturday at 9 a.m., a panel will discuss Silver Lake and the rural clean water program. Included on the panel is Mary Clement, environmental planner of Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission, Ming T. Lee of the Illinois Department of Energy and Natural Resources, and Thomas Davenport of the Environmental Protection Agency.

Speaking at the Friday evening banquet and awards program at the Holiday Inn at Edwardsville is John J. Eckes, state conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service. The program will be emceed by David Lightle, area agronomist.

Advance reservations are required for the banquet. Reservations may be made by contacting Dale Sherrard at 1-656-3139.

The meetings are open to the public. The registration fee is $5, which includes the field trip to Silver Lake.

For more information, interested persons may contact Dale Sherrard at 1-656-3139.

STATE SELLING OBLIGATION BONDS

General obligation bonds totaling $150 million will be offered for sale by the state of Illinois on Tuesday, Nov. 16. Budget Director Robert Mandeville announced Monday.

Sealed bids will be received until 11 a.m., Nov. 16, in Room 320, at 180 North LaSalle Street, Chicago.

The state last sold $150 million in general obligation bonds on July 8 to a group led by the Chase Manhattan Bank of New York at a net interest cost of 11.33 percent.

The Nov. 16 bonds will have equal maturities of $6 million due on Nov. 1 of each of the years from 1983 to 2007, with interest payable semi-annually each May 1 and Nov. 1. The average bond maturity is 13 years.

Legislation seeks another $75 million student loans

Legislation that will provide more than $75 million in additional student loans in Illinois has been introduced in the General Assembly at the request of Governor James R. Thompson.

"Making the resources available for our college students to further their education is vitally important to Illinois and its future. It's an essential element of our development plan," said Thompson.

"It is our responsibility to make sure that students have the opportunity to match their desire to attend our colleges and universities," he said. "It is even more important that we take these steps in the wake of reduced federal funding for student loans."

The governor said the legislation, which was first announced in September, will expand by $75 million the bonding authority of the Illinois Designated Account Purchase Program (IDAPP), a loan program administered by the Illinois State Scholarship Commission.

The program currently purchases delinquent student loans from lending institutions in Illinois. Under the measure introduced Friday, the IDAPP will have the authority to purchase any loans under the Illinois Guaranteed Loan Program (IGLP). Banks then will use the proceeds from those sales to make additional student loans.

A portion of these additional funds could be used to purchase Parent Loans for Undergraduate Students (PLUS), a program that provides financial aid to families without income qualification ceilings. IGLP loans are available to students from families with an income of less than $30,000 without a financial needs test.

Under the Guarantee Loan program, interest rates for new borrowers will be 9 percent, 12 percent for PLUS borrowers.

WOMAN IS BOOKED IN GC ON FIVE CHARGES

Two battery allegations were filed against Cindy Turner (Grainache), 23, of St. Louis and of the 2800 block of E. 25th Street, last week after a woman struck and scratched Rosemary Hildreth, 2222 Lincoln Ave., and Marilyn Turner, 1907 Spruce St., at the latter address. A souvenir machete knife was taken from a display and then was flourished, the two alleged. Cindy Turner also was booked on three earlier Granite City warrants. Pleading innocent, she was held in lieu of $5,000 bond.

Long Lake Fire District residents may qualify for lower fire insurance

By PATHAY LUTZ
For the Press-Record
Residents in the Long Lake Fire Protection District will soon pay less on their homeowners' insurance, according to Fire Chief Lee Adams.

Adams told Nameoki Township Board members Monday that a study by the Insurance Service of Illinois shows that the district's rating had gone from nine to seven for residences within 1,000 feet of a fire hydrant. The rating indicates that the immediate availability of fire protection equipment reduces the amount residents must pay for fire insurance.

Residents living more than 1,000 feet from a fire hydrant must continue to pay the amount based upon a nine rating.

Long Lake fire officials requested the study after they had made several improvements in the district. According to Adams, new equipment, more manpower and more accessibility to water helped to reduce the rating.

"We have three new pumps which hold 1,000 gallons of water, a tanker which holds 3,000 gallons of water and we can draw on the lakes," Adams said. "We also have more men to handle the equipment, which also includes new hydrants."

The Long Lake Fire Protection District services approximately 13,000 to 14,000 residents in Nameoki Township.

Township members also voted not to pay the retainer fee of $691 to Granite City for the use of their ambulance service. Because they do not have a contract with Granite City, township members indicated that they were bound only to pay the specific charge for use of a Granite City ambulance.

According to Trustee Lee Adams, the township entered into a contract with Campbell Ambulance Service when the contract with Granite City ended in June. "We do not have to pay a retainer fee and we actually pay less than we paid

Granite City," Adams said. "Campbell's also takes whatever amount is paid by Public Aid or Medicare," Adams stated. "We had to pay the difference between the charge and the payment with Granite City." Other municipalities being charged retainer fees by Granite City are Ponton Beach, Chouteau, Venice City, Venice Township, and Madison.

DEDICATE VIETNAM VETS MEMORIAL
The Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund, the organization constructing the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington, D.C., yesterday launched its five-day tribute designed to combine the dignity of Veterans Day with the excitement of the Fourth of July, a spokesman said.

through Sunday in Washington, D.C., consists of a dedication of the memorial to Vietnam veterans, a candlelight vigil where the names will be read of the almost 58,000 Americans who died or are still missing; and entertainers' salute hosted by Jimmy Stuart; unit reunions and receptions; a grand parade down Constitution Avenue and religious services nationwide.

Seek $100 million for home heating grants

Governor James R. Thompson has announced that the state has taken the first step to get about $100 million earmarked by the federal government to help the poor and elderly in Illinois pay heating bills this winter.

"State government has no more important duty than to help provide for its least fortunate citizens," said Thompson. "As we have in the past, we are going to do just that."

The governor has designated the Department of Commerce and Community Affairs (DCCA) as the state agency to administer the program. It will start in Illinois on Dec. 15, the first date on which applications will be accepted. Thompson said Illinois is asking the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) for $101.4 million in federal Fiscal Year 1983, which began Oct. 1.

The amount is equal to the grant HHS gave Illinois last year, he said, though an additional federal appropriation brought the final state share to $108.5 million.

The governor encouraged all those who believe they may be eligible to get preliminary information now from DCCA or their local administering agency sources. The state information hotline number is 1-800-252-8643.

DCCA Director Peter B. Fox said the Illinois Home Energy Assistance Program (IHEAP) dollars are funneled to individual citizens in two ways — via the state Department of Public Aid for those getting public assistance and through local community action agencies for the public at large. Grant amounts are the same as last year.

Last year, approximately 390,000 Illinois residents got help under the program which, besides helping with heating costs, also provided funds for weatherizing to cut monthly fuel bills.

Specifically, 225,000 people got help with fuel bills through local community-based agencies, 140,000 were helped by Public Aid, 16,000 had emergency bills paid for example, the cost of restoring service after disconnection) and 7,000 had their homes weatherized.

Fox said persons meeting the income requirements are eligible for IHEAP funds. They include: households with one person and annual income no greater than $2,398, two persons and income of $7,333, three persons and $8,745, four and $10,674, five and $11,636, six and $12,624, seven and $13,950 and eight and $14,310.

The public may review the state proposal at DCCA offices through Nov. 15 and offer suggestions. In addition, a public hearing will be held at a time and place to be announced later.

Church reunion here includes confirmand of the 1896 class

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

In celebration of its 120th anniversary, St. John United Church of Christ on Nameoki Road in Granite City held a reunion dinner for confirmands during the weekend, conducted a Sunday morning Communion service early this week, added to its fund to remodel the church to increase accessibility for the handicapped, and renewed its dedication to the ideals of Christian service.

The accompanying photographs by Bill Winter Jr. show the confirmation reunion at the Granite City Township Building. Members of more than 80 yearly confirmation classes were present, including a member of the 1896 class.

TOP LEFT—Part of the 425 confirmands at the dinner, some from as far away as California. In the foreground are photos and other memorabilia. The church was established in 1862 at its present site, which at that time was a rural area surrounded by farms.

TOP RIGHT—Henry George Willard, now in his mid-80s, addresses the confirmands as a representative of the confirmation class of 1910. The Willards and many other families have been associated with the church for several generations. Original services were in German, later changed to German and English, and now entirely in English (except for German carols sung each Christmas).

LOWER LEFT—The chancel choir of the church sings to the reunion group under the direction of Alan W. Miller. Its selections were Young's "Now Sing We Joyfully unto God," Rock's "How Great Thou Art" and Willson's "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You."

The oldest St. John confirmand present was Anna Marie Elisabeth Willard Meyer, class of 1896. She will be 100 years old in five months.

Also introduced was Emma Katherine Marie Branding Roman, 93, a member of the class of 1902.

Class confirmatories were given by nine persons, beginning with Henry Willard. The other speakers were Sophia Bertha Buehrer Young, class of 1915; Emma Amelia Hanfelder Reileke, 1922; Harriet Louise Brinkhoff Bunselmeyer, 1934; Donald Dean Young, 1945; Myra Lorraine Willard Robertson, 1957; Barbara Jean Sage Sues, 1968; Veronica Anne Sues Douglas, 1970; and Michael Dennis Sturman, class of 1982.

Pastors speaking included the 1982 pastor, the Rev. Allen J. Reiter, who offered prayers.

Among those at the head table were recent pastors, the Rev. James Mory, the Rev. Sheldon Culver, Dr. Paul Surbey and Dr. Carl Eschenbrenner, plus Mrs. Laura Uthlaut. The latter, wife of the late Rev. Chester Uthlaut, 1944-53 St. John pastor, spoke at the next day's worship service, which was followed by a fellowship hour and light luncheon on Sunday.

Other former pastors in the long history were the Reverends Wilken, Weltge, Kaminski, Seydel, Weissinger, von Weg, Maul, Andreae, Plassman, Dexheimer, Schoppe, Nial, Lamar and Netz. Rev. Schoppe, who was unable to attend, is now 87.

With Steven Carl Sues as master-of-ceremonies at the reunion dinner, pastors, church organists and confirmation class members through the years were recognized. The welcoming talk was by Leroy Edward Schaefer, 1982 president of the church congregation and a 1956 confirmand.

The congregation sang Fawcett's and Naegeli's "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," relating that "the fellowship of kindred minds is like that above."

Erla Luehmman was cited as the parent of the greatest number of confirmed children, both present and not present.

The largest confirmation class, 43 boys and girls in 1967, was represented by four members. There were ten confirmands present from 1935.

This year's confirmation class members were introduced, and it was noted that the last group taught in German was the 1918 class.

Names and addresses of more than 1,000 confirmands were compiled in planning the 120-year event. The banquet committee headed by Steven Sues was composed of Dolores Ann Stronlund, Zeglin, Carol Lee Robertson Reileke, Linda Kay Johannigmeier Sturman and Emma Marie Buehrer Willard.

The initial church was known as the German Independent Church of Six Mile Prairie and then the St. John German Independent Evangelical Church.

Other names recalled at the reunion were: Lutheran Church of Six Mile Prairie, 1863-98; St. John Evangelical Lutheran Church of Nameoki, 1898-1927; St. John Evangelical Church of Granite City, 1927-36; St. John Evangelical & Reformed Church, 1936-61; and then St. John United Church of Christ.

Lioness chili supper in Pontoon Saturday

The Pontoon Beach Lioness Club will host a chili supper Saturday, Nov. 13 from 11 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. at the Lion's Den II, 3601 Lake Drive, according to Lioness Iteline Lipscomb, chairman and Lioness Mary Morgan co-chairman.

"Last year's chili supper was such a smashing success that the Lioness Club decided to make this an annual event," Mrs. Lipscomb said. Since many of the ingredients and desserts are donated by the Lioness members, the majority of the donations are used in the local community charities and service organizations, she added.

Tickets are $3 for adults and $2 for children under 11 years of age. Cost of tickets includes "all-you-can-eat" with dessert and drink.

SCHERMER'S MISSING WOODEN PALLET

Wooden pallets with a value of about $1,120 were reported taken from a storage shed outside Schermer's Garden Shop, 1201 Madison Ave., Madison late last week.

County Housing starting desegregation program

A compliance agreement between the Madison County Housing Authority and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, disclosed by the Press-Record on Sept. 20, is now being implemented.

Formally dated Oct. 22, the pact is the result of a long period of negotiation. It does not constitute an admission by the Authority of any violations of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Terms of the agreement will have an effect on MCHA policies and procedures, a spokesman said this week.

The Authority owns and operates 12 projects, four of which are for elderly only.

MCHA also administers a Section 8 housing assistance payments program and a Section 8 rehabilitation program. It provides a rent subsidy to more than 400 families in Madison County.

Under terms of the agreement, persons applying for housing in the projects owned or operated by the housing Authority will have steps taken to assure assignment of tenants on a racially non-segregated basis.

All applications received for conventional public housing and Section 8 new construction will be categorized according to the size unit, which is appropriate for the applicant's family.

A county-wide waiting list will be maintained for new applications within each unit-size category offered by the Authority.

Conventional public housing units are as follows: Grenzer Homes, Madison;

Garesche Homes, Madison; Viola Jones Homes, Venice; Lee Wright Homes, Venice; Venice Homes, Venice; Northgate Homes, Collinsville; Brainer Homes (7-story structure for elderly), Collinsville; Curran Homes, Alton; Sullivan Homes, Alton; Alton Building (10-story building for elderly), East Alton.

MCHA's Section 8 new construction consists of: Stevens Building (for elderly), Wood River, and May Building (for elderly), Edwardsville.

All applicants for conventional public housing and Section 8 new construction are to be assigned to units on a "first come, first served" basis, with modifications in accordance with the date and time of the first application, within the rent ranges established by the Authority and sanctioned by HUD.

The Authority, in determining qualifications of persons applying, will not be prohibited from applying factors affecting qualifications, preferences or priority which do not involve consideration of race, color or natural origin and which have been approved by HUD, or such factors which are required or are in conformity with directives, circulars or regulations from time to time issued by HUD, the spokesman said.

In its desire to comply with the desegregation of units owned or managed by the Madison County Housing Authority, the Authority will try to establish a level of minority and non-minority percentages of 75 and 25 percent within each project or Section 8 program.

The Authority, through its occupancy department, will advise new applicants and those tenants wishing to transfer in an integrative move regarding their eligibility.

Applications received for Section 8 existing and moderate rehabilitation program, also will be categorized according to the size unit, which is appropriate for the applicant's family. A county-wide waiting list will be maintained for new applications within each unit size category.

"Steps have been taken to notify present participants, prospective participants and the county at large of the policy of non-discrimination in regard to conventional, Section 8 new construction, Section 8 existing housing and moderate rehabilitation programs," Dewey Van Dyke, acting MCHA executive director, said.

Various fund-raising projects to aid the marching band from Steelerland," will be discussed at the regular meeting of the Granite City High School North Band Parents Tuesday, Nov. 16, at the school, according to Pat Unger, secretary.

She asks that each parent attending bring a "white elephant" or gag item gift wrapped for an auction. Parents also are asked to bring a dozen of their favorite cookies and the recipe. Those attending will sample the cookies and exchange recipes at the meeting.
